Wilton restructures staff

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

There will be some changes in the staff at the Antioch Village Hall and also some minor changes in the structure of the Antioch Police Dept., says Mayor Robert Wilton.

With Marilyn Sterbenz (the super clerk) retiring, Sara Lehn has been appointed to the position of village clerk.

Unlike Sterbenz's job description, Lehn is a part timer and will only be responsible for taking minutes at the board meetings and signing checks that require the clerk's signature.

Village Treas. Shirley Gutowski will be having more responsibility. She will serve as deputy clerk and mail clerk. She will also be able to sign anything that requires the clerk's signature immediately.

Laurel Dahl will serve as the office manager because of the high level of her office skills and another full-time clerical worker to work on the village computers, take care of the payroll and the water billing will be hired.

When asked about the appointment or hiring of a village administrator, Wilton said not in the immediate future, adding that he is not in favor of having an administrator at this time.

At a special committee meeting early this week, the board interviewed the three planners remaining in the narrowed-down field.

The board could possibly vote on either Planning Resources; Wheaton; the Lakeland Group out of Madison, Wis., or Rolf Campbell, Lake Forest, at the next village board meeting on May 22.

Wilton has already started to implement some of his campaign promises.

He has been flushing the water mains for almost two weeks, at night, in an effort to clear-up the rusty water in the village.

Wilton is trying to be in the village hall for a few hours, after 9 a.m. during the week, so that if anyone wants to talk to him on village business, he will be available to them.

Emmons to try bond vote

Emmons Grade School will not be trying to find those three needed votes for the passing of its $1.6 million bond referendum for school expansion by calling for a complete vote recount.

On Monday the school board voted to make another try on the November ballot. For awhile it looked like the one vote loss suffered by Emmons when the expansion vote was beaten on the April ballot might be surmounted.

But after information on that discovery process was given to the school's Citizen's Steering Committee signs that Emmons was not going to make a try by using a recount were evident.

Expanding U of I services

Threatening skies fail to dampen enthusiasm of University of Illinois officials at ground breaking for much needed addition to Lake County Cooperative Extension Service office, Rte. 45, Gages Lake. # From drug addiction to 11 months of being straight

BY IRIS MAYFIELD
Lakeland Newspapers

"Like everyone else, I had a smile on my face, but behind closed doors, I was hurting myself and crying. I was cutting my hands and feet, mostly with razor blades, but with knives too," she said.

"Say No to Drugs," as part of the war on drugs, is being fought on the homefront by media, police departments, and, as in this case, by Lake County schools and teens who have said "yes" to drugs with the result that some teenagers are making a turn-around through those school programs.

"When I came here," she continued, "I was smoking pot daily before school and my self-esteem left at that point." What turned this teen around? Where did it start and end?

It started with the purest and noblest of intents; a pact, not to use drugs, between three scared 14-year-old Lake County freshman girls, as a defense against the use of Cocaine in a north shore high school one of them had previously attended. "I saw how messed up so many girls there were."

The pact was torn apart by peer pressure easily exacted on people not old enough to have self-esteem solidly in place.

"Even when I was younger I felt like I never fit in," said one of the girls who made the pact. "I've always felt different. I had my first drink in 8th grade. That first time I got drunk, and it never crossed my mind I could drink and not get drunk. I started drinking weekends my freshman year and I fit in better. I had more boyfriends and was socially at ease. That's why I started drinking and using drugs," she continued.

A Lake County teen's story of self-abuse

"I smoked pot for the excitement. People told me it was fun, but once I used it, I loved it. My friends said I'd be accepted more when I first started using heavily."

She said she started chemical abuse on weekends and it grew from just weekend use to drinking on her summer job while waitressing. "Then, no one was pushing me, I was pushing others. I didn't want anyone getting close to me that did not have the same problem as me. I would just work and drink, and my life started getting bad. My parents and I started fighting more."

However, coming to a school with its substance-abuse program was a turning point for her.

"I started seeing a psychologist and a doctor. My attitude was shot by then. At home I was yelling and screaming. That was the worst time, just before I walked out the door for school, I had to yell something at my parents. I did not like any authority. I blew off school a lot. I walked around paranoid."

At this time, she was drinking and taking anything she could get her hands on, within reach. "I would bring little concoctions to school in a Thermos of everything; I would steal my parents alcohol." She described how she took, Vivarin, aspirin, cough medicine, Dyna-tabs along with her concoctions. When she used pot daily, she went back to drinking on weekends.

"I never drank or took a pill without getting high. I took it to get off. I fell in love. It was my best friend."

She accidentally fell into the right school. "I've been sober 11 months next Sunday."

"It's scary," she said, looking back. "I got to a point where I didn't care about anyone except a person who could get me more alcohol or money, or someone to do it with to make me feel I did not have a problem. Looking back into the hellish world I lived, keeps me sober."

"The authorities are there to help, not hurt you. Turn to an adult you trust in church, school, or any other community group," she said.

We are finally to the point in our construction where we must close for a short while.

We will be closing Monday, May 15th.

We want to thank all of our valued customers for their support during construction.

Watch for the opening of the newly remodeled DINO'S DEN.

See you soon!

VICTORY. TECHNOLOGY THAT GETS TO THE HEART OF THE MATTER.

CARDIAC CATHETERIZATION. A CLOSE-UP LOOK AT WHAT'S INSIDE YOUR HEART. As part of Victory's ongoing commitment to quality healthcare, we're teaming up with the cardiac experts at St. Luke's Hospital in Milwaukee to offer you the most advanced diagnostic technology in cardiac care - Cardiac Catheterization.

A brilliant innovation that can almost see a heart problem coming, Cardiac Cath is an inside look at what's really ticking in your heart. For patients with suspected heart disease, Cardiac Cath is a way to look inside the heart and see blockages of blood vessels and other abnormalities. This information then allows your cardiologist to diagnose your heart problems and recommend the best methods of treatment.

Highly acclaimed, board certified St. Luke's cardiologists, supported by Victory's cardiac nurses and technicians, will perform the procedure on site. This assures you of nationally renowned cardiac care plus the comfort, assurance and convenience of staying in your community hospital, under the care of your own physician.

The only hospital in Northern Lake County to offer this state-of-the-art procedure, Victory gets to the heart of your cardiac problems.

CARDIAC REHABILITATION. THE ROAD BACK TO GOOD HEALTH. This medically supervised program helps people with heart disease to live healthier, more productive lives. The individualized programs provide progressive physical activities for cardiac patients and education about cardiac health to patients, their families and the community.

WELLNESS PROGRAM: OUR COMMITMENT TO PREVENTIVE CARDIAC CARE. From smoking cessation to nutrition counseling to stress management to CPR, our wellness programs promote health and fitness through analysis and education. These programs are just one more way Victory provides you with a healthy dose of preventive medicine.

For more information on our comprehensive cardiac programs, and other Victory Memorial Hospital programs, call 360-4246.

Earthmover hits school bus

An earthmover, driven by Dan Sterbenz, Antioch, went out of control near the intersection of Rtes. 45 and 173, went into ditch at side of road, came out of ditch, careened across the road and struck a school bus carrying Waukegan East

High School track team to a tournament in Rockford. The bus driver, seven students and two staff members were injured in crash that happened at 2:20 p.m., on Friday.

Wilton pitches first ball of youth baseball season

On a sunny Sunday, May 7, Antioch's Youth Baseball began its season in chilly temperatures.

The day's festivities began with Peter Thelen singing the National Anthem as Antioch's VFW Post No. 4551 presented the colors and gave a 21-gun salute.

Also present at the gala event were Miss Antioch, Stephanie Vogt and Little Miss Antioch, Amber Dusak.

In a tradition instituted by Bill Brook, former owner of the State Bank of Antioch, and carried on by the present president, Randy Miles, members of the baseball leagues are able to completely recuperate registration fees by selling raffle tickets on prize cattle, purchased by the bank annually at the Lake County Fair.

The meat is donated to the baseball program and raffled off at the annual Lions' Club Chicken BBQ in August.

Accepting plaques to honor those responsible for this tradition were Janet Brook, and Roger Mandersheid, exec. vice president of the bank.

Also honored on opening day were Bernie Gutowski and Tom Poulous, who between them, have given over 30 years of service to Antioch Youth Baseball as managers, coaches and board members.

At noon, the season was officially opened when Antioch's new mayor, Robert Wilton, accompanied by his wife Leta, tossed out the first ball.

In Girls' Junior League Softball, the teams that played that day, the results of the contests were Thelen Sand and Gravel won over Murphy's Excavating, while Flo's Hair Care defeated Heath Construction and Pickard China did the State Bank in on the score board in a game that is under protest.

In Boys' Little League, also playing opening day, Baskin Robbins handily defeated Lyons and Ryan, while the First National Bank fell under the the winning spell of Hada Custom Homes.

Antioch contests

There are some changes in the Little Miss Antioch and the Miss Antioch Contests this year. Miss Antioch will be crowned at Antioch High School on Saturday, July 1 and Little Miss's coronation will take place on Sunday July 2, also at the high school. Applications are being handed out at the village hall right now for both contests. The deadline for entries to be back into the village hall is 5 p.m., on Monday, June 19. Contestants must reside in the 395 area code, be six to eight years of age for the Little Miss contest and Miss Antioch contestants cannot be younger than 16-years-old or older than 22.

Earthmover hits bus, driver, students hurt

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

Antioch schools were just about to be dismissed and the traffic on Rte. 173 was running at a normal rate when the afternoon calm was split with a deafening crash.

At approximately 2:20 p.m., on Friday, an earth mover crashed into the front of a school bus carrying the Waukegan East High School track team to a Rockford meet.

According to the driver of one of the largest piece of construction equipment, Dan Sterbenz, 33, Antioch, and witnesses at the scene, the earthmover had been heading east on Rte. 173, when it pulled off to the side of the road to let traffic pass.

As the earthmover pulled to the road's shoulder, a large semi-truck passed it, Sterbenz lost control of the vehicle which went into the ditch, came out of the ditch and careened across the highway, striking the front end of the bus.

When Antioch, state and county police plus emergency squads from Antioch, Lake Villa and Salem Twp. Wis. arrived at the scene, they found the bus driver, Rodney Thomas, 33, pinned in the bus' wreckage, seven students and two school staff members hurt.

The remaining 12 students on the bus were not injured.

After being removed from the smashed vehicle, Thomas was taken to St. Luke's Hospital in Milwaukee for treatment by the Flight For Life helicopter from McHenry.

As of press time, he was in satisfactory condition, suffering with a broken jaw and chest injuries.

The injured students and staff members were taken to St. Therese and Victory Memorial Hospitals in Waukegan.

Only one student was injured serious enough to remain in the hospital over night.

Sterbenz, the driver of the earthmover, was not injured but he was ticketed for improper lane usage. He owns a dirt moving company and a fitness center in Antioch.

Grass Lake Fun Fair on May 21

Grass Lake Grade School's PTO will be sponsoring the annual Grass Lake Fun Fair '89, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., on Sunday, May 21, at the school.

There will be a moon walk, an ice cream social, a bake walk and raffles and carnival games for the entire family.

From 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., the Antioch Rescue Squad will show a slide presentation on yesterday and today, and the making of the rescue squad. Free blood pressure testing will be available.

Antiques, arts, stalinglass and handmade crafts will be on display at the outdoor arts and crafts fest.

The Antioch Women's Club and the Antioch Jr. Women's Club will be serving pie and coffee.

The Grass Lake School Girl Scouts will hold registration.

Honor Bill Brook

Janet Brook, left, wife of former State Bank of Antioch owner, receives award from Doug Lang, head of Antioch Youth Baseball umpires, in her husband, Bill Brook's name, for support bank has given baseball program. Award ceremony was held at opening of baseball season at Little League Park.

Iceless hockey awards awarded in quantity

by LIZ SCHMEHL
(312)395-5380

He there Diane Gallegos, I've been told that someone is going to send you a copy of this week's column. I just wanted to remind you that all your fiends in Antioch are thinking of you often and are continuing to pray for your complete recovery. We'll keep the cards and prayers coming. You keep up the hard work with your physical therapy and soon you'll be home again with your beautiful family.

Hockey Trophies

Sunday, April 16, the iceless hockey trophies were distributed to all participants of the program. Parents and youngsters gathered in the ACHS gym at designated times. The program was for boys from first through seventh grade and will be open to eighth graders next year. I was on hand during the fourth/fifth grade awards and was overwhelmed by the sizes and quantities of the trophies neatly arranged on the tables. Multiply that by the other grades involved and one can see how many participants are in this worthwhile program. The organizers and coaches should be applauded for their hard work and dedication on continuing this program for so many years.

ACHS Honor Night

Honors night at ACHS will be May 17, at 7:30 p.m. It will be in the high school auditorium. Parents are encouraged to come to see their sons/daughters recognized for outstanding scholastic achievements. Scholarships will also be announced that evening. The graduation exercises at ACHS will be held in the north gym at 2 p.m., on Sunday, June 4. Admission will be by ticket only.

Unpredictable

Little "unpredictable" Nicole Santicimmo is in the news once again. It seems a fright prank she tried on her older sister backfired. According to Niki's mom, she has literally been lurking and crawling around the house for weeks, trying to sneak up on and scare her fellow family members. Until recently, Nicole was unsuccessful. However, she proved "If at first you don't succeed, try, try, again!" Lurking in a corner waiting for her sister, Jenny, paid off two-fold. As Jenny came around the corner and was startled, Jenny's screams in turn scared Niki so bad that she flew up the stairs to her room. As a result, she remained so shaken, she decided to take refuge in her sister's room. Momma, Pat, feels Niki is finally out of the scaring phase.

Geography Bee

"The country of Somalia is found on which continent?" This is only one of many questions asked of Emmons fourth through eighth grade students during the annual geography bee. The contest was so intense, the judges finally called it a tie for first place. Coming in first were eighth graders Eric McCallum and Kristen Pierson. Second place winner was Anne Braun, a seventh grader. The other participants in the Bee were: Fourth grade: Keith Hurley, Bret Towns, Audra Miles, Erik Steffenburg; Fifth grade: Kevin Arlt, Gordy Persha, Joe Stecher; Sixth grade: Brit McCallum, Grahame Metezzer, Jason Williams, Reni Towns; Seventh grade: Matt De Martini, Brian Douglas, Amy Reijonen, and Eighth grade: Mike Wegner and D.C. Malson. Congratulations to all participants and an extra special hip hip hooray to the winners from someone who has trouble explaining where Antioch is.

Engagement

I have another wedding engagement to share with you. This one happens to be rather dear to my heart as it is one of my own daughters. Barbara Schmehl is officially engaged to their long-time boyfriend, Dan Filips. Barbara is a graduate of GLS and ACHS and also a nursing graduate of CLC. Her fiancé is from Des Plaines and a mechanical engineer graduate of Circle Campus in Chicago. Barb and Dan are presently contemplating a fall or winter wedding and will decide on the date shortly.

Simply Superb

A long wait came to an end for the Groh family on Thursday, April 27 at 10 a.m. Their horse "Tickles" gave birth to a healthy baby boy. They named the colt "Simply Superb," but will call him "Bubba." Bubba is a purebred registered Appaloosa and his father is a grand champion. He was born at Windance Acres in Round Lake. Congratulations, and remember to take a lot of pictures to show the Lizard!

Moose Officers

The Moose Lodge in Antioch hosted the installation of officers on Saturday, April 29. The following men were put into office: Ralph Gussarson, governor; Joe Gutowski, past governor; James Kaminski, junior governor; Robert Bock, prelate; Dennis Wagner, treasurer; Denis Bingsdale, administrator; Dale Frasch, one-year trustee; Dennis Coomes, two-year trustee; Richard Jorgensen, three-year trustee; Sam D'Amore, sergeant at arms; Robert Hines, assistant sergeant at arms; Richard Kelly, inner guard and Randy Brundage, outer guard.

wives, and don't say plenty. Rough vacation

Howard and Eileen Stann had a rather rough vacation in Mexico. After Howard suffered a slight injury, Eileen followed suit. Except she wasn't satisfied just getting a bruise, she opted for a broken arm. Hope your arm heals quickly, Eileen, we all know how you hate being kept down. Get well soon!

Sharing is Caring

The Antioch Senior Center would like to thank the ACHS student council and fine arts department for inviting the seniors to their fourth annual "Sharing is Caring" Dinner Theater, on Wednesday, April 26. The seniors were treated to a delicious catered dinner in the high school cafeteria. Afterwards they enjoyed the dress rehearsal of the dramatic production of "Harvey." This play is put on by the young men and women of the fine arts department. I was told all had a wonderful time and really appreciated being thought of in such a special way.

Mr. Seeless

Mr. Seeless/Harris is in the news once again. First it was his mishap at the eye doctor, then the spill from the stage, and next his rendezvous with the garbage. Recently he had a battle with a two by four and it appears that the two by four won. Seems Jim bumped his head while working on a house and instead of going to the doctor, he decided to stop in at the bank to get his wife's opinion on the seriousness of his "scratch". Dr. Ardeen told him he'd be fine and would not need stitches. Oh, what would husbands do without their

PTO Dinner

The annual Grayslake PTO Dinner Dance was a huge success. Marie Brausam and Julie Groh did a fine job organizing it, getting loads of nice door prizes, and acting as co-emcees throughout the evening. The PTO officers, Mary Franzen, John Cardis, Pam Izenstark, and Alice Fleming, all received very special gifts thanking them for a job well done. There was also a special thank you goodbye remembrance to five families whose last child will graduate GLS in June - Sandy and Steve Chinn, Trudy and Dan Fiocchi, Judy and Keith Hansen and Ardeen and Jim Harris and Darlene and Bob Olenick. It also became known that Dave Tomei, the fifth grade teacher, was the king of the Twist. The food was delicious, the music was fantastic, and Shufflers were something else, and the evening was too short. Hope to see you all there next year!

Hello

My hellos this week go to Bob and Carol Stengel, Corkey Trieger, Bruce and Carolyn Adams, and Dave and Linda Jones. Till we meet again, take care, and remember to "ask for the Lizard!"

ACHS instrumental concert May 11

Members of the Antioch Community High School concert band, jazz ensembles and symphonic band will be featured in spring concert on Thursday evening May 11 in the high school auditorium.

The concert will begin at 7:30 p.m. with the concert band performing "Dramatic Prelude" by John Kinyon, followed by "Greenwillow Portrait" by Mark Williams. Next will be a Steve Hodges composition called "River East Overture" and they will conclude with "Empire Overture" by Calvin Custer.

The next group to perform will be the jazz ensemble. They will play three selections from this year's variety show entitled "Summertime" by George Gershwin, "Hey Mambo" by Barry Manilow and "Sunday Morning" arranged by Bob Lowden.

Following a short intermission the "B" jazz ensemble will perform two selections entitled "Watch What Happens" and "Jack Usage."

The last group to perform for the evening is the symphonic band. They will open their portion of the concert with a concert march entitled "Jubilee" by George Kenny. Following the march the symphonic band will perform a Percy Grainger melody called "Early One Morning" arranged by Joseph Kreines.

"A Spoon Full of Sugar," "Chim Chim Cheree" and "Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious" are a few of the many songs from Walt Disney's "Mary Poppins" that will be heard.

The close of the concert the band will play a programmatic selection entitled "Overture 1812" by P. Tchaikowsky. Tickets are available from band students or can be purchased at the door. Adults $2 and students $1. All tickets are payable at the door.

Players to cast 'Yankees'

Lakeland Players, Ltd., community theatre organization in Elkhorn, Wis. recently named the cast for its spring musical, "Damn Yankees." Included were residents of Antioch and Spring Grove.

Ken Scheskie, Antioch, will play Sohoval, and Connie Sturm, Spring Grove, will play Doris.

Additionally, the production will be directed and choreographed by director/performer/choreographer, Donna Linde Badtke, of Genoa City. Badtke has long been active in Antioch's PM&L Theatre where she has directed such hits as "Oklahoma," and "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," to name only a few.

Stage manager is another PM&L veteran, Janet Reynolds, also a resident of Antioch. Musical direction is by Chris Ghilani, Lauderdale Lakes, Wis.

Newcomb top pupil

Steve Newcomb, right, is selected Antioch High School's Student of the Month for April. He was selected for his outstanding leadership and performance in the choral program. He is a leader in the acapella, Madrigals and show choirs. He has been selected to perform in the Illinois Music Educators' Dist. Festival, the Ill. State University Honors Choir, and in several other honors choirs. He is an above average student who volunteers his time in helping with the underclass choirs and is active in his church. He has participated in drama activities and sports in his four years at ACHS. Newcomb is congratulated on being chosen a top student by Keith Cox, choir director. — Photo by Gloria Davis.

Village of Antioch law forbids open burning

It is that time of year again...the time when the thought of cleaning up the yard and the burning of leaves overtakes everyone. But recent changes in both village ordinances and state law prohibit open burning. Effective in 1986, the 84th General Assembly in Springfield, amended the Illinois Environmental Protection Act to read: "prohibiting of open burning of leaves and related landscape waste in counties with a population of over 400,000. This includes the County of Lake. Such burning is permitted only upon obtaining a permit from the IEPA."

The Village of Antioch has also amended its leaf burning ordinance to eliminate all open burning within the village limits.

"In essence," states Antioch Fire Chief Carney, "The traditional burning of leaves and landscape waste is no longer permitted in our area."

He further commented that he hopes that residents of the village and Antioch Twp. will follow these new rulings. "If they do...perhaps we can eliminate the possibility of unnecessary grass and field fires."

Chief Carney supports these changes and in so doing, wants to remind the area residents of the number of unnecessary field and grass fires that occurred last year.

Questions concerning the IEPA ruling should be directed to their office in Springfield 1-217-782-5562. If resident of the village or township has any questions concerning open burning, they can direct them to the Antioch Fire Dept. - Fire Prevention Bureau at (312)395-5511 (9 a.m. - 5 p.m. Monday through Friday).

A safe season against accidental fires is the responsibility of each Antioch Twp. resident and the Fire Prevention Bureau of the Antioch Fire Dept. for everyone's help.

Antioch looks to resume NSC winning streak

Antioch's baseball team will be hoping to bring back momentum gained in a sweep of Mundelein when the Sequoias host Fenton May 13.

The Bison come into the contest suffering from internal team problems.

According to Antioch Coach Greg Decker, the Bison had to forfeit Saturday's contests.

As for Antioch, the squad played some memorable baseball and then played some baseball the Sequoias hope never repeats itself in North Suburban Conference games. Antioch had everything clicking in 13-6 and 10-0 wins over Mundelein but then fell to NSC power Libertyville 6-4 and 23-4.

The wins over Mundelein featured a home run hit by Matt Kruczek which hit Midlothian Rd. in Mundelein, some 400 feet from home plate. "He always has been a long-ball hitter for us," Decker said.

Antioch's Mike Bablo

picked up the win in the first Mundelein game. He enjoyed early leads, as the Sequoias jumped out to an 8-0 and 13-0 advantages.

Kruczek's home run was the senior center fielder's second of the season. "He's been hitting pretty consistently," Decker said of the .325 hitter.

Bablo helped his cause at the plate, going three-for-three with a triple, double and single. Jason Bellucci had two runs-batted in and Matt Pelland had a hit and two RBIs.

Starting pitcher Dan Grote improved his record to 2-3 in the 10-0 win over the Mustangs. He limited MHS to just two hits, both by Jeff Wheeler.

Grote struck out five and walked no Mundelein hitters. He set the tone for in the first inning, firing 14 strikes and no ball calls. He finished the day with 67 pitches in the five inning game.

"It was nice to see things fall into place for us," Decker said.

That though, was before the Sequoias, who started the week 6-12-1 overall and 3-9 in the NSC, faced two tough opponents at Libertyville.

The host Wildcats are an annual league power but the Sequoias gave them a run for their money in a 6-4 game one loss.

Antioch led 4-1 as late as the fifth inning before the home team rallied. "We don't seem to be able to close the door," Decker said.

Libertyville led 4-0 after three innings of the second game when a strange snowstorm hit, that seemed to spell doom for Antioch, as Libertyville scored 11 runs in the fourth inning to cruise to the laughter.

"It was like Murphy's Law. Anything that can go wrong did. They almost batted around three times," Decker said.

Mayor tosses first ball

Antioch's new mayor, Robert Wilton, tosses out first ball of Antioch Youth Baseball season at Little League field on Sunday. Bill Brook and Randy Miles, State Bank of Antioch, were honored for years of support of Antioch's baseball program.

Sequoias softball squad shoots for league wins

The rain may have ended in time for Mundelein and Antioch to play a North Suburban Conference softball game.

But in the bigger sense, the reign continued. That's because Mundelein thumped Antioch 14-1 to win its 10th straight NSC game and continue a win streak which dates back to 1987. The win was Mundelein's 12th straight.

Mundelein's Susan Musselwhite was the winning pitcher in the six-inning game.

"She's the best high school pitcher I've ever seen," Antioch Coach Ken Anderson said.

Musselwhite pitched five innings in the game, scattering three hits by the Sequoias. Lynette Kowalke pitched the final inning.

Musselwhite improved her record to 10-3 with the win.

The senior, who has signed a national letter of intent to play basketball for Southeast Missouri State, helped her own cause with a three-for-three, three Runs-batted-In day at the plate.

Also contributing to the 11 hit attack was Ashley Struggles. Struggles, Mundelein's leading hitter, stroked a home run and had two RBIs. Demi Micheleau had a bases loaded triple in the sixth inning.

Mundelein had two big innings to provide the difference, scoring six runs in the second and eight in the sixth inning.

Antioch scored its run in the fifth inning. Kelly Pramshafer started the frame with a single.

Five Antioch errors did not help the Sequoias cause.

The loss dropped Antioch to 4-12 overall, 2-10 in the NSC.

Mundelein will be hoping to continue its dominance of league play when it hosts Zion-Benton May 13. The Zee-Bees have won eight straight NSC games before the 10:30 a.m. twinbill.

Antioch, meanwhile, will be glad it is out of the high rent district of the NSC when it battles Fenton in Bensenville May 13.

"We're out of the meat grinder," Anderson said.

Antioch lost two games to Libertyville in the snow Saturday and they both had one thing in common. The Sequoias could not handle success.

In game one, Antioch led 8-0 and seemingly was coasting toward an upset win. But the Wildcats rallied in the fifth inning, scoring eight runs and won 10-8.

In game two, Antioch led 7-4 at one point only to see the Wildcats recover to win 8-7.

Mundelein's Saturday doubleheader with Lake Forest was snowed out.

BUNIONS

Bunions are a progressive deformity, that begins with a mild bump at the base of the big toe. If left untreated the big toe deviates outward and destructive arthritic changes occur. If treated early, surgery may not be needed. If surgery is indicated it is not a disabling procedure. I utilize the Swiss Compression technique which prevents cast wear and the patient may walk that same day. Other advantages to this procedure are that surgery is performed on an outpatient basis and little or no time is missed from work.

Ozzie and Harriet dead, assault alive and well

by GLORIA DAVIS

Lakeland Newspapers

A look back at most school records during WWII shows that the most frequent school offenses were chewing gum, talking and running in the hallways or playing hooky.

The records of many high schools in the United States today show sexual assault of both teachers and students, by both teachers and students, and the taking of drugs and imbibing alcohol as frequent school offenses.

Sexual assault has always been present, so why the sudden increase in reports on the evening tv news, in the headlines of the daily and weekly papers, and on the radio news broadcasts as we head home from work?

The latest statistics say that a sexual assault of some kind is committed every 30 seconds somewhere in this country.

Figures from the Illinois State Police records show that incidents of criminal sexual assault have increased 300 percent since 1986.

National figures carry the horrendous promise that one out of every three women in the U. S. will be sexually assaulted sometime before they die.

The fact that women are more independent and can be found by themselves, coming home from work, at a singles bar, or living alone, late at night, is being blamed for much of the rise in rape stats.

Though women are stronger intellectually and socially than ever before, the fact that the average woman's physical strength is no match for the average rapist's remains.

The carrying of protective equipment such as a spray can of mace, a hand alarm or whistle, a stun gun or a sharp implement, always close at hand, has been recommended by law enforcement agencies for women that often find themselves in less than desirable situations where an attack may occur.

Many women have enrolled in self-defense courses, learning safety tactics that range from a fast kick in the attacker's groin to actual black belt movements.

Both the abuse of women and children has been largely attributed to domestic violence brought on by 1980's financial stresses, and the abuse of drugs and alcohol.

There are many cases of sexual abuse and even murder committed by parents against their own children.

In Kenosha, Wis., a five-year-old foster child was just returned to its foster been returned to its mother and her live-in parents after his own parents abused him. He was returned by the same court that took him away and gave him to his real mother a few years ago.

There was a big shakeup a several years ago in the Ill. Dept. of Children and Family Services when a child, that had boyfriend by that department, was beaten to death by them.

In Alton, Ill. an investigation concerning the finding of the body of a six-week-old girl is underway. The parents are being focused on because another 13-day-old daughter of the same parents disappeared three years ago.

It seems the newspaper headlines have heralded sexual assault and murder of children by almost all the kinds of people that used to be considered safe company.

A teacher that served as a substitute in both northern Illinois and southeastern Wisconsin schools was convicted of sexually abusing his students.

Another teacher in Lake County who directed a teenage show group was accused of having sex with one of his teenage performers.

Also in Wisconsin, a 45-year-old Boy Scout leader was charged with seven criminal counts related to the sexual abuse of teenage boys in his care.

There have been more horrifying and morally degrading headlines that tell of priests and ministers, as well as child care experts, abusing the children they have been given charge of.

Even in government offices children are not safe. A two-year old girl was pulled into the men's room of a welfare office in New York and sexually abused when the mother momentarily left her alone.

Favorite uncles, aunts and cousins have been caught sexually trifling with their minor relatives.

The most unusual conviction of child abuse happened in the case of a mother being found guilty of child abuse by a judge because she used cocaine a few hours before her baby was born.

The judge in question compared the use of cocaine in these circumstances to giving a baby in a crib razor blades to play with.

Experts tell parents that the best way to guard against child abuse, sexual or otherwise, is to know exactly what kind of people have their child in their charge. Constant unexpected checking at the site of the childcare during its process and also checking with the child intermittently is recommended.

There are definite ways that child experts have for parents and teachers to get their children to tell them about an abuses they have suffered.

A check with a local DCFS office, law enforcement and child welfare agencies as to proper procedures in questioning a child one thinks might have been abused, is a good way to keep close tabs on those that have children in their care. There are also video tapes available on instructing children what to do if they think someone may be trying to attack them. Call your local library for information on this one. Some law enforcement agencies and community groups are lending these tapes out free of charge.

Child abuse dilemma crosses all lines

By STEVE PETERSON
LAKELAND NEWSPAPERS

The two words comprise a topic which may have been taboo just 10 years ago.

Child abuse.

But for three hours at the College of Lake County eight speakers addressed means of coping with what the Exchange Clubs of America has called "Our Neighborhood Tragedy". The speakers were part of the Exchange Clubs of Lake County's program on Child Abuse presented at CLC's auditorium.

"It is a tremendous problem we have in America. This problem crosses all racial and economic lines," Larry Lenzen of the Grayslake Exchange Club said.

Beverly Knutsen of the Dept. of Children and Family Services said the agency (DCFS) works in behalf of children in adoption, child care and child welfare.

"Anybody can make a report," Knutsen told the audience at CLC's Grayslake campus.

DCFS will intervene on behalf of the child if he or she is under age 18 and is at risk.

To put the problem in perspective, she listed some of the problems about young people according to a survey taken in schools in the 1940s. These include walking in halls, chewing gum and cutting in line.

Today's dilemmas for youth include rape, murder and suicide.

"It is very difficult for kids to report they are being abused. They feel they are responsible for the abuse," Knutsen said.

"Many victims feel a sense of isolation," Laura Notson, director of the Children's Advocacy Center in Waukegan, said.

Notson said those fighting against child abuse have changed their strategy. No longer is the child abuser generally considered the stranger, but usually is someone known to the child.

The county's efforts, in addition to the work DCFS performs out of its Lake Villa and Waukegan offices, is highlighted by State's Atty. Fred Foreman's child advocacy center.

The center works with DCFS and local law enforcement agencies as a team in combating the problem.

Notson said the center has found that boys are almost as likely to become child abuse victims as girls are.

"We are getting more reports of boys being abused," she said.

Notson said the crime is one which is often repeated by offenders.

"We have to teach kids they have rights," Tracy Raasch, a family counselor at the child advocacy center, said.

Raasch said parents should be aware of people whose only activity in life deals with youngsters. Also, child abuse prevention program should be encouraged in schools.

Lake County Coroner Barbara Richardson also was a guest speaker along with Karmen Smith, director of the Exchange Club Center for the Prevention of Child Abuse; Nancy Bossered, a parent aide in the Exchange Club program; and Billy Jo Sills, a member of the board of trustees for the National Exchange Club's Prevention of Child Abuse Foundation.

Vitek keeps tax review job Geary wants filled

Bernard Vitek is still clinging to the Board of Review job he has held for the past eight years.

This is the Lake County body that reviews objections to annual assessments made by local assessors. Pay is $15,000 per year for once-a-week meetings half of the year and almost daily meetings from September through June.

Efforts are being made to replace Vitek with Edward Gueroult Jr. of Round Lake.

Bernard Vitek

A banker, he is former president of the Avon School board and is currently a member of the combined Grayslake Unit Dist. 46 elementary school board. Gueroult ran with Avon Twp. Sup. Norman Geary on the Avon Good Government slate in a losing April election.

It is the prerogative of the County Board chairman, which is Geary, to make appointments to such bodies as the Board of Review. "I served two years on that same board," said Geary and found lots of things wrong. "I even received the SAM award," he said of an honor from the former Lake County Civic Alliance for his diligence and work toward good government.

Vitek has been on the Board of Review for eight years. Prior to that he served as Lake Villa Twp. assessor for 8-1/2 years. He is a protege and appointee of former Lake Villa Twp. Sup. Ronald Coles, who also served as County Board chairman.

Other members of the board are Milcent Berliant of Deerfield, onetime County Board member, who was appointed in March by Geary, and long-term member Austin Douglas of Lake Bluff.

Now 68, Vitek said he is experienced in Board of Review matters. "If there is a new appointee that means Douglas is going to have his hands full," Vitek said about the upcoming workload. "That is especially true with the quadrennial assessment this year in many of the larger townships, which always creates a lot of business for us."

Several years ago there were so many objections following the quadrennial that each of the three Board of Review members split into separate, individual boards to complete their work. Vitek recalls receiving a commendation from the County Board for that effort.

Retired, Vitek said he has no other interests and the time to perform his board of review duties. "I don't know if Gueroult has the time this job requires," Vitek said.

Appointment of a new member to the board was on the agenda at the May 9 meeting of the County Board. When Geary found he did not have enough support for this and several other appointments he wanted to make, they were withdrawn from the agenda. "The votes just weren't there," said someone close to the board.

Also removed from the agenda was appointment of six County Board members to study restructuring county government when reapportionment occurs in 1992 and the appointment of County Board members F.T. "Mike" Graham and Carol Calabrese of Libertyville as directors of the Central Lake County Joint Action Water Agency.

Vitek lives at 1917 Hazelwood Dr., Lindenhurst, the same home in which he has occupied since moving to the community in 1956. Prior to becoming an assessor he was a butcher for Dahlgaard's IGA store in Lake Villa and Depke's Market in Wildwood.

Gueroult lives at 22438 W. Merriewood Ln., Round Lake. He has a master's degree in finance from Loyola University, Chicago, and lists 20 years of financial management and bank operations experience.

Era of cooperation

More and more, the 1990s are shaping up hereabouts as an era of cooperation in solving the avalanche of problems associated with rapid urbanization.

Through the forging of inter-governmental agreements, cohesive plans are being formed with hopes for coordinated action directed at difficulties resulting from rapid growth and development that have perplexed officialdom during most of the turbulent decade of the 80s. Whether the agreements are the result of a shotgun marriage between county and village officials or a conviction that working together is our only hope remains to be seen.

An impressive list of coordinated plans should be in place by the end of the year:

- A master plan for handling Lake County's garbage for the next 25 years has been approved by the Lake County Joint Action Solid Waste Planning Agency. The emphasis will be on recycling and incineration with fewer landfills.

- County officials have come forward with a comprehensive $896-million plan for building new and expanded highways through the year 2005, which omits the controversial extension of Rte. 53. The plan is the result of the Lake County

Transportation Study, representing both county and municipal officials.

- Working hand-in-glove with the transportation study is development of a new county ordinance establishing traffic impact fees that represents a compromise that might be acceptable to home builders and developers.

- Significant progress is being made by the Lake County Stormwater Management Planning Committee for adoption before the end of the year of a county-wide drainage plan. The plan will provide for unified ordinances directed at flood control and solving mutual drainage headaches.

Incumbent in the impending era of cooperation is that local and county officials are working shoulder to shoulder. This is a far cry from secrecy invoked by county government to grab open space before village trustees could act with a head-'em-off-at-the-pass mentality to enact annexation ordinances.

If the Cool Hand Luke atmosphere of the 1980s that made local government look, at times, like a spaghetti western is at an end, so be it. This newspaper, for one, will be happy to help usher in the Era of Cooperation.

75 years of service

Even after 75 years, Cooperative Extension Service, once geared for improving rural life, keeps growing because it keeps serving and changing.

Lake County Cooperative Extension is a vastly different organization than it was during Home Bureau and Farm Bureau days when local families relied on the organization, an arm of the Univ. of Illinois, for scientific and practical information to solve problems.

Today, home economics advisors talk more about computers than they do canning. The Lake County agriculture advisor is more apt to be advising on backyard mulch than silage, although the stuff looks the same to the uninitiated. The commitment of Extension professionals is the same, though—helping the changing needs of the people of Illinois.

With ground broken Monday afternoon, May 8, for an addition to Extension headquarters on Rte. 45, the unique service is destined to expand in new directions. We proudly salute the Lake County Cooperative Extension Service, professionals and volunteers alike, on 75 memorable years.

Dual service declining

Although it is statutorily legal for township supervisors to simultaneously hold the office of county board representative, Lake County voters are taking a dim view of the practice, fairly common here over the years.

In one swoop, April 4 the electors reduced to one the number of officials serving in a dual capacity, knocking off three powerful township leaders in the process—Robert "Bob" Neal of Newport Twp., F.T. "Mike" Graham of Libertyville Twp., and Norman Geary of Avon Twp. The sole survivor is Antioch Supv. Jim Fields, a mid-term Dist. 4 county board representative who sailed to victory in what amounted to a purge in other townships.

The passionate dispatch of Neal, Graham and Geary undoubtedly will give pause to other supervisors who have entertained thoughts of running for the county board next year. After the harsh treatment at the township level, the trio of former dual-office holders will likely be giving serious consideration to whether they want to face the electorate again—and so soon. Surprising as it may seem, the campaign for county board election is only about six months away.

In the past, some of Lake County's most capable and gifted leaders served simultaneously as township supervisors and county board members. We supported the practice, criticized as "double dipping" by detractors, in the belief that the holders of both offices were acknowledged experts in local government and with the conviction that the two offices were complementary. Over the years, though, dual service has given rise to charges of conflict. Another reason for disenchantment with dual service on the part of the electorate is the level to which township supervisor salaries have risen. There appears to be a desire on the part of voters to "spread the money around."

Another reason could be the feeling on the part of taxpayers that with the proliferation of problems to solve, two heads are better than one. With the increasing role of townships in grassroots government, the practice of dual service appears to be on the way out.

Little leadership

Residents of the far southern sector of the Chicago Metropolitan area opposed to a third major airport are participants in a scenario strangely similar to opposition in southern Lake County to plans for a new superhighway or toll highway expansion.

Citizens in and around Kankakee, Grant Park, Peotone and Beecher feel some of their elected officials are selling them down the river on the third airport question. A state senator has been accused of sitting for months on the results of a negative study.

With the exception of State Rep. Robert Churchill (R-Lake Villa), who favors the highway, and State Rep. John Matijevich (D-Waukegan), who opposes the highway, the Lake County legislative delegation has been agonizingly silent on the controversial highway.

The highway transportation system in south Lake County is in a mess and getting worse every day. Our elected representatives in Springfield are offering precious little leadership in bringing about solutions to the escalating traffic snarls.

Viewpoint

Theater plan for public use is opportunity

by BILL SCHROEDER

If the Forest Preserve Commission in west suburban Kane County can provide a home for a minor league baseball team, the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. might be interested in getting involved in a plan to establish a playhouse/country museum complex at Rte. 45 and Center St., Grayslake.

That's the thinking of members of the Grayslake Development Corp. who feel the 58 acre site adjoining Brae Loch Golf Course, purchased by the Forest Preserve Dist. five years ago, ought to be more useful than growing mediocre corn crops and thistles.

"The corner's prime. Now that is part of the Forest Preserve system, it'll never be developed except for some public use. I can't think of a better use than for dinner theater and a museum," declared Edward Surroz, GDC president.

Members of the Grayslake Historical Society feel their search for a permanent home might be solved by affiliating with the complex. Ray Rockenbach, retired businessman, has fostered the idea of a recreated turn-of-the-century farm complete with live farm animals. "It would be exciting and show new residents how Lake County used to be," declares Rockenbach.

Lake County has achieved great success with running golf courses at Brae Loch and Countryside, Mundelein, which more than pay their own way. Surroz feels the 58 acre site is a natural for further public use development because it's in the vicinity of the College of Lake County and the Lake County Fairgrounds.

Philip Elfstrom Kane County Forest Preserve Commission chairman, is pushing hard for the minor league team. He has the Wausau, Wis., Timbers, a Class A affiliate of the Seattle Mariners, ready to relocate if Kane County will erect a baseball park. Elfstrom is one county leader to stick his neck out in favor of public use development.

With the nearness of the huge northern suburban market, Surroz feels professional theater management would jump at the chance to lease playhouse facilities.

Lake County Forest Preserve Commissioners have been criticized severely for their open space buying binge. Development of the Brae Loch site might give them a chance to show how public lands can be put to good use.

CONSIDERING—There's no doubt that reader LaVerne Thompson makes an excellent point about balloon-launch litter defiling the countryside and posing a danger to wildlife (see Letters column). We're happy to consider her request to adopt a policy of non-coverage with the idea that balloon launchers will be discouraged when the launching isn't covered.

What I'm concerned about, though, is what's going to happen when the Friends of Balloon Launching and the Amalgamated Society of Balloon Launchers gets wind of this conspiracy to deprive them of their God-given rights to launch balloons? After all, balloon launching is right next to motherhood and apple pie as patriotic American Symbols. I think I'm with you, LaVerne. To heck with balloon launchings. Now bring on the protests.

*****

FAST START—Frank Meier, new mayor of Fox Lake, isn't complaining about all the duties involved in the mayor's office. He has a ready quip to describe how busy he's been since election. "I ran for a $7,500-a-year job, and I think I've earned half my pay already," declares Meier.

*****

CAMPAIGN PLANS—Melinda Willen enjoyed running for mayor of Grayslake so much that she is planning on running for trustee in two years. Willen didn't lose her sense of humor despite losing to Marvin Smith. "I told Marv that I hope he does such a good job I won't have to run against him in four years," laughed Willen, as she discussed the election of 1991.

Letters To The Editor

Campaigning against balloons

Editor:

When I was in my twenties, I wrote my first letter to the editor. It was to your newspaper and the subject was littering.

I try to do "my part," I don't litter, my family never has, and now I am teaching my grandchildren to have respect for our environment.

A brief news story in early February caught my attention. It was about the State Supt. of Public Instruction of Wisconsin, who had issued a directive to all Wisconsin public schools to cease the practice of balloon-launching. Aside from the obvious litter, the story stated balloons were ingested by wildlife, causing illness and death. I was encouraged, to say the least. There was another story in that same issue. The other was a large picture in full color of a grand opening of a new supermarket in Round Lake releasing a huge tent of balloons.

I am asking you to adopt a policy of non-coverage of any balloon-releasing event in Lake County.

I have spoken with Regional Supt. of Schools Sybil Yastrow, and she has pledged her leadership to cease balloon-launching from Lake County schools.

Can I count on your newspaper to adopt this environmental policy—can I count on you to do your part?

Admits to one DUI

Editor:

I was amused at Joe Soulak's sly reference in his item about me last week (May 5) that if my background becomes an issue in my race for County Board, I'm going to need a whole lot of political PR.

My private life is much more sedate than my public life. I get up between six and seven, do a few exercises, eat breakfast, then conduct my business for the day. In the evening, I frequently have a meeting, then come home and study (a habit I've never gotten out of). If I can get away for a weekend I like to go camping or hiking. Not a boring life, but neither is it the stuff of which romantic and dramatic novels are made.

I do have a blemish on my background. I had a DUI. I know this will come as a disappointment to those who have been busily whispering that I had three or four, but fact is seldom as interesting as fiction. Just about a month before my ex-wife and I separated, I was stopped and ticketed. The case was dismissed. A month after our divorce was final, I was charged with DUI. I wish it had never happened, but I can't remake the past.

My ex-wife and I remain close friends, but even under the most amicable of circumstances divorce is a wrenching, hurtful experience. My DUI was a serious error. It was not part of a pattern, though, but an aberration that occurred at a very difficult time.

Other than that, my background is clean, if not boring. When I was married I didn't cheat on my wife; I don't gamble; and I'm kind to children and animals. I have never believed that the right thing for government to do is cheat widows and old folks out of a fair price for their homes and I never will.

I imagine sometime I'll do something else that I'll regret, such as life. But I don't make a career out of any stupid error. I try each year to be a better man than I was the year before. I reckon I'll just keep plodding along in the same manner.

Empire Builders won

Editor:

I am appalled by the last local election. Not so much as to who won, but why and how. Open Space was a big victor in Lake County, but Norm Geary was a loser in Grayslake and Avon Twp. This is quite a contradiction.

I know that the citizens of Grayslake and Avon Twp. don't want the Empire Builders sweeping through, as is the case with some of our neighboring communities. Did they vote for Open Space? No! Did they vote for Melinda Willen? No! They voted against Norm Geary! Why?

Is it because he is so courageous and bold as to oppose these developers openly, making their sweep difficult? Is it because he challenged representatives of other communities, who serve these Empire Builders rather than their constituents, (their friends and neighbors?)

For these reasons, and these reasons alone, these same developers blasphemed Norm Geary repeatedly.

For these reasons, we let the "Empire Builders" win the election? Shame on us!

Get closer to the truth

Editor:

After having read the commentary by John S. Matijevich, titled "Tax balloon burst," many times, I feel I must follow some comments of my own.

First of all after listening to and reading what politicians have to say, it is impossible to tell which one is getting closer to the truth and which one is straying further away. It many times appears that what they say has much more to do with winning votes than addressing the needs of the state.

In case the reader of this article missed Matijevich's commentary, his premise was that although Gov. Thompson has asked for more money from taxpayers it was really never needed. The governor would probably have misused the money, and the state has ample money to pay its bills. If this premise portrayed by Matijevich is correct then maybe he could respond to the following:

1. In a state as rich as Illinois why are we 44th from the top in educational funding?

2. Why, although the law states that the Teacher's Pension Plan should be funded, has the state under Thompson repeatedly refused to allocate adequate money for this?

3. Why do we keep reading about increased rates of child abuse and keep hearing the complaints that there are not enough state employees to do the right job?

4. Why are so many hospitals going bankrupt because of lack of funds from medicare, etc.?

5. Why do we in Illinois have some of the worst roads in the United States?

I could go on with more questions like the above, but why bother.

In my opinion, until the politicians on both sides decide to quit acting in their own self-fulfilling and probably irresponsible ways and start addressing the real needs of their constituents, letters like this are probably a waste of time anyway.

George Scherer

by Joseph Soulak

How much is a good politician worth? Judging by the cost of their testimonials, receptions and other excuses to mingle, each has a price.

In April there was a reception to introduce would-be Round Lake Beach politician Charlie Johnston to the world. He plans to run against Dist. 4 County Board Norman Geary of Grayslake next year. There was no cost for the food and drinks at Kristoff's in Round Lake Beach. Freeloaders were welcome.

Retired Round Lake Park Mayor George Scherer is having another in a series of tributes Friday, May 26. It will be at the Captain's Galley in Fox Lake. On the village board for 30 years, he has been mayor for the last eight. The $35 cost is will help buy the mayor a plaque, gift and entitle the ticket holder to dinner.

How about a $50 one? It is a fund raiser for Sect. of State Jim Edgar. He's looking at the governor's office. That budget buster will be Tuesday, June 20, at Marvella's restaurant in Fox Lake. But eat and drink fast at this one. It's all you can down of both from 6 to 8 p.m.

Annual parade of Lake County Republicans will be Friday, May 12. As in other years, it is the annual "coming out" party of the Lake County Republican Federation. Like other years, this one will be the at the Holiday Inn, Rtes. 83 and 45, Mundelein. Everyone who is anyone in Lake County GOP circles attends.

Guest speaker is Samuel Skinner of Lake Forest, now secretary of the U.S. Transportation Dept. Most people around here remember him as U.S. District Attorney for northern Illinois and, until earlier this year, chairman of the RTA for this part of Illinois. He is also past vice-president of the sponsoring GOP federation.

Skinner was in Alaska last week looking at the Valdez oil spill. Chances are he'll have something to say about that and the subsequent rise in gasoline prices he personally criticized. For those who won't be there, watch the 10 o'clock news. This is a news-making event.

Lake County's top building and zoning code enforcement officer is waiting to build his dream home.

Robert Streicher, director of the Lake County Building and Zoning Dept., wants to put a 5,700-square foot, five-bedroom home on a one-acre, $46,000-lot in Ishnala County Estates near Lake Villa.

But the Lake County Health Dept. won't issue a permit. There is no allowance for a second septic field equivalent to the size of the original. That's the rule since last fall, both luxury homes like Streicher's and smaller ones.

He's taking the county to court. Those in the know say Lake County builders are underwriting some of the legal costs. The outcome could have an impact on their livelihood. Meanwhile, Streicher doesn't care about the cost, he wants the dream home he hoped to start in March to be liveable by Christmas.

Suzi Metzler

Things were returning to normal this week at the Lake County Republican Federation office. Veteran Executive Sect. Suzie (Margaret) Metzler is back on the job.

She was sidelined at her Gurnee home and in the hospital for several weeks with a mild heart condition. Her absence was sorely felt in handling details for the annual federation dinner on Friday, May 12.

Suzi was back on the job for a few hours a day starting Monday. She's even expected at Friday's dinner. It's not easy to keep a political warhorse like Suzi tied down for long.

She has been executive secretary of the Lake County Republican Federation and Lake County Central Committee for 26 years. During that time she has served under four county GOP chairmen—Robert Milton, W.J. Murphy, George Kangas and, presently, Robert Neal.

Residents speak out in survey by legislators

Western Lake County area residents have indicated their position on two major environmental issues facing the county at this time: The possible extension of Rte. 53 and the condemning of homes for open space purposes by the forest preserve district.

Sen. Jack Schaffer (R-McHenry County) and Rep. Robert Churchill (R-Lake Villa) have each surveyed area residents on the two very prominent issues in the western Lake County area. Residents of Antioch, Avon, Lake Villa, Fremont, Grant and Wauconda townships were surveyed.

"The three options for what to do on Rte. 53 are to proceed full steam ahead with the Rte. 53 construction project, continue to acquire the right-of-way for Rte. 53 for preservation of the land for construction at a future date, or to forget about construction," Rep. Churchill said.

An overwhelming majority of the respondents (over 70 percent) support the completion of the Rte. 53 extension. Approximately 45 percent want the road completed immediately; approximately 25 percent want the roadway available for future construction. Only 25 percent opposed construction, with 5 percent undecided.

"We had a particularly good response from Fremont Twp., where residents are very much affected by both issues, since not only does Rte. 53 run through Fremont, but there's also been a lot of controversy about the forest preserve district issue," Sen. Schaffer said. "Of those surveyed from Fremont Twp., 45 percent wanted to begin construction now, 13 percent said to begin construction later, while 40 percent were opposed to any construction of Rte. 53."

Proponents of construction of Rte. 53 says that even with funding from the state and agreement on right-of-way acquisition, the new highway probably could not be built within five to 10 years, and by then the highway will be essential to avoid total gridlock caused by growth in highway congestion in the western Lake County area.

The survey also asked several questions regarding the issue of open space. "In recent months, the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. has moved to acquire ground for open space purposes, including owner/occupied homes and working farms," Sen. Schaffer explained. "This action stirred up a great deal of controversy and prompted legislation to be introduced in the General Assembly to restrict the power of a forest preserve district to use eminent domain to acquire property from unwilling sellers."

Those surveyed were divided on the question of whether the forest preserve district should acquire the maximum number of acres for open space use, with slightly half (approximately 47 percent) saying the district should not, and about 42 percent saying it should.

About 67 percent of those surveyed said the forest preserve district should acquire only natural areas. The question of whether the open space powers of the forest preserve district should be used to restrict development by acquiring land that would otherwise be developed for houses, industrial areas and shopping centers was almost a draw—with 49 percent saying yes, 41 percent saying no, and 8 percent undecided.

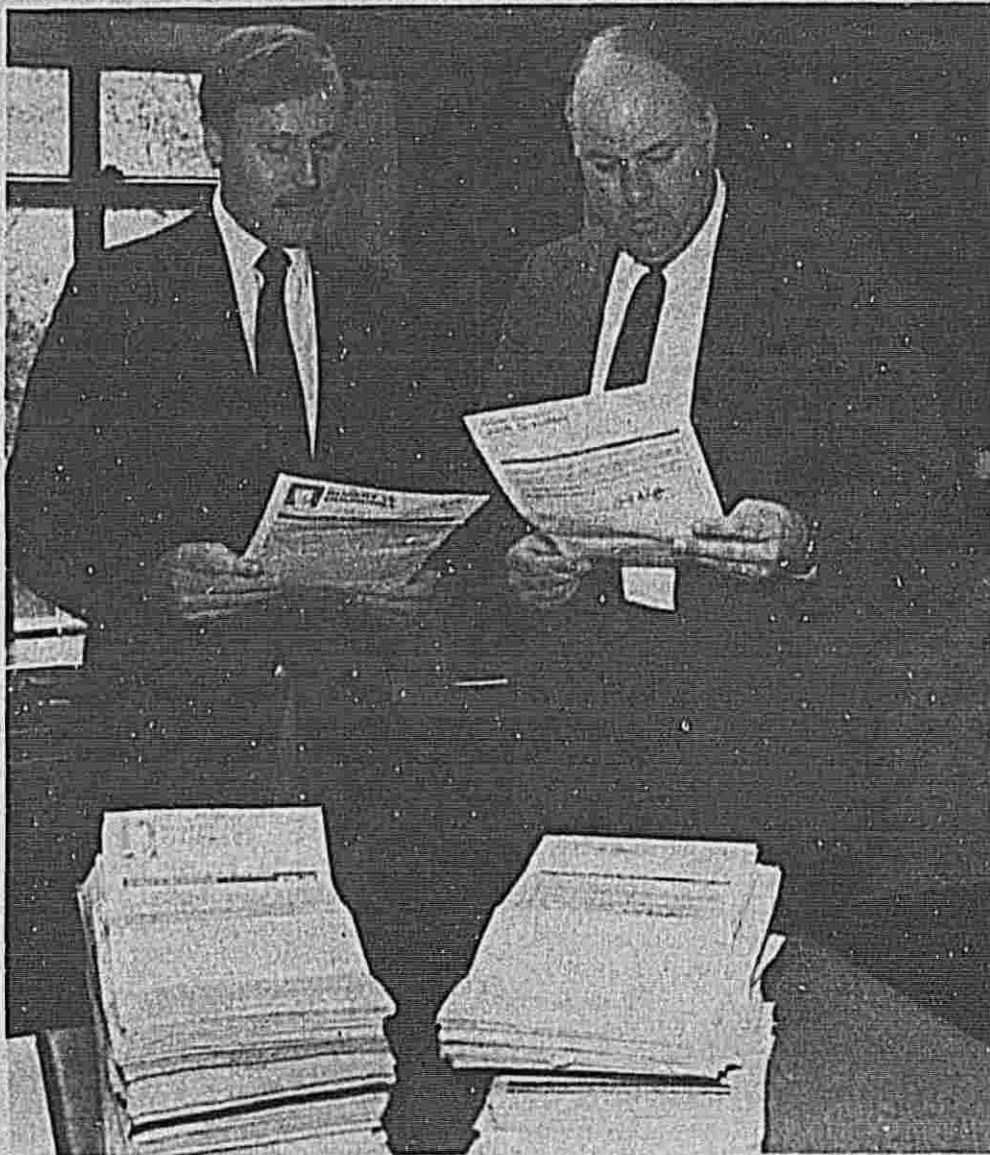

Slightly more than half of those surveyed said they wouldn't want to spend any extra money for local property tax for open space acquisition, while 36 percent said they would pay $50 to $100 a year. Only 8 percent said they would pay more than $100 a year (based on homes assessed at $100,000 market value).

About 90 percent of the people surveyed said forest preserve districts should not have the power to condemn owner/occupied homes or working farms who are not interested in selling their homes or seeing their property developed.

"I interpret these results not as an indication that there is no support for open space, but rather as opposition to heavy-handed condemnation practices and concern over the number of dollars being spent," Sen. Schaffer said.

Sen. Schaffer's survey showed that 73 percent of respondents think the state should require the forest preserve district board to vote by a two-thirds majority (instead of simple majority) to condemn land.

The responses were very divided on the question of whether the forest preserve districts should have the power to condemn homes or working farms when current owners are willing to enter into an agreement to sell their property to them (right of first refusal) at the point they decide to sell or upon their death. Of those responding to Sen. Schaffer's survey, 42 percent said yes and 50 percent said no. Fifty-one percent of those responding to Rep. Churchill's survey said yes, while 42 percent said no.

Survey review

Rep. Robert Churchill (R-Lake Villa), left, and Sen. Jack Schaffer (R-McHenry County) review their survey results. Both legislators surveyed western Lake County area residents on the issues of building a Rte. 53 extension and the use of condemnation by the Lake County Forest Preserve to acquire open space.

Cooperative Extension breaks ground for new facility

by BILL SCHROEDER

Gray skies and threatening clouds belied a bright future as ground was broken for a much-needed addition to the Lake County Cooperative Extension Office, Rte. 45, Grayslake.

The ceremony took place Monday, May 8, exactly 75 years to the day that Congress adopted the Smith-Lever Act creating Extension Service at the Univ. of Illinois and other land-grant schools for the nation.

Lake County was among a dozen Illinois counties holding 75th anniversaries, and none of them celebrated in more significant style, with U of I dignitaries present and a Navy band providing march music.

Dr. W.R. Gomes, dean of the College of Agriculture at U of I, saw the breaking of ground as symbolic for Lake County and "breaking ground for new ideas, new programs and a new direction for Home Extension."

Two university trustees, residents of Lake Forest, both spoke and helped turn sod with silver-plated spades.

Susan Gravenhorst told the assembled throng, some with umbrellas, that the building addition is "wanted and needed. I know that it will be used effectively." Grabowski, reflecting on his boyhood in Chicago, remarked that 4-H ties together the agricultural and urban communities. "Cooperative Extension is ready to accept the challenge to serve both in the future," he declared.

Other speakers included D.L. Uchtmann, acting director, Illinois Cooperative Extension Service; and Dr. James Oliver, associate director of urban programs, Region III OES.

Dominic Enz, chairman of the Lake County OES executive council, served as master of ceremonies.

Many of those present sported lapel buttons heralding 75 years of service. Those attending enjoyed coffee and cake during a social period following the groundbreaking.

March of Dimes honors Smith

The March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation honored Karla Smith, RN, MSN, of Fort Sheridan with its Outstanding Nurse Recognition Award. Smith is maternal health supervisor at the Lake County Health Dept.

State Rep. Grace Mary Stern and Steven R. Patsic, M.D., executive director of the health department, presented the award at a ceremony held at the Belvidere Medical Bldg.

Smith was honored for her significant contributions to the March of Dimes' mission to reduce birth defects by improving maternal and infant health. She has been instrumental in the reestablishment and subsequent growth of the Prenatal Program, which provides comprehensive prenatal care, education, delivery in a local hospital and postpartum clinic visits to low-income women in Lake County. It is anticipated that the program will have served more than 600 women from July 1, 1988, through June 30, 1989.

Permanent makeup: Way of the future?

by KIM BOLTON

LAKELAND NEWSPAPERS

Sherry Otterson, C.P.E., is in the business of making people beautiful.

Sherry is a certified professional electrologist and the owner of Electrolysis by Sherry, a permanent hair removal and cosmetic business with four offices in Lake County.

Sherry, a life-long resident of Lake County and mother of four, first learned about electrolysis 16 years ago from a beautician with whom she was friends. The beautician informed Sherry of the new procedure and said that she believed there would soon be a great demand for electrologists because electrolysis is the only way to permanently remove unwanted hair.

At the time, Sherry was building computers in Waukegan. She enjoyed her job, but decided to go to school to learn about electrolysis and the procedure. After performing electrolysis part-time for three years, Sherry opened a business in her home on Wadsworth Rd. in unincorporated Wadsworth.

Sherry said that many of her female clients are so embarrassed about their unwanted hair, that they don't tell their husbands they are having electrolysis done. Most of Sherry's time is spent on removing the hair on the upper lip, chin, and breasts of women, but many men are also requesting the procedure on their necks, brows, ears, back and chest.

A very personable woman, Sherry said she must be able to put her clients at ease because of the private nature of her work.

"I like people. That makes a difference," she said.

"They get to know me and I get to know them. You have to put them at ease. Basically, I'm like a psychologist to a degree," Sherry said adding that her personal relationship with clients has often enabled her to talk about, and work out problems of her own.

Electrolysis is accepted by the American Medical Assn. as the only permanent method of hair removal. The way it works is an ultra-fine instrument is inserted into the hair follicle until it reaches the papilla, or hair cell. Heat is emitted for a certain amount of time at a certain intensity. At this point, electrocoagulation has taken place on the cell. A sanitized tweezer is then used to epilate the hair.

Sherry said that in order for electrolysis to work, the papilla must be reached. But, she said that it isn't always possible to do because she cannot see beneath the skin. It is most difficult to do on clients who have tampered with the hair before seeing an electrolysis specialist.

Sherry's hair charts, which she uses in her explanation of the procedure, show how a normal hair follicle and papilla look, and compares it with several others that have been tweezed, waxed or removed by other methods on the market that claim to remove unwanted hair forever. These hair follicles have become distorted and difficult for the electrolysis instrument, which is straight, to reach.

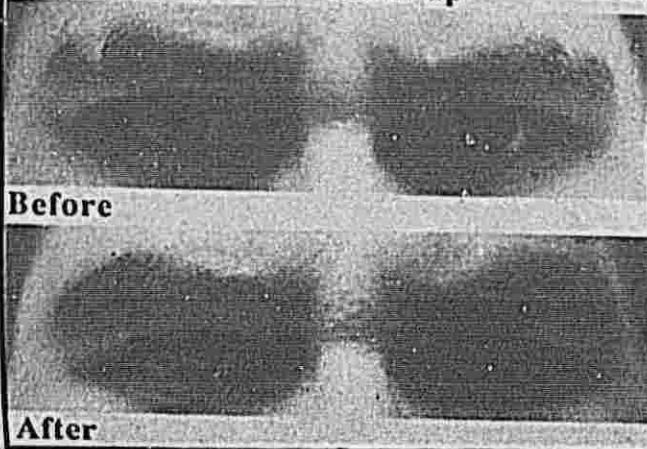

Sherry said the number of treatments it takes to reach all the papilla of the unwanted hairs in an area, like the upper lip of a woman, depends on the success of reaching the papilla. She said that some women come to her after tweezing for 25 years and expect immediate results. Sherry explained that electrolysis will work on these people, but they have to be patient because their papilla are more difficult to reach.

Another reason why electrolysis cannot be completed in one visit is that it can only be attempted on hairs in the anagen stage of growth, which is the second of two growth stages. The others are telogen and catagen. The anagen stage is the stage the hair is in soon after it has surfaced

Permanent Eyelining

Eyebrow Touch-up

through the skin and become visible. All the hair in an area are never in the same stage simultaneously, and therefore, cannot be removed in one session.

Sherry said she is good at what she does and tries to remove as many hairs as she can in each 15 minute session.

"We want the results because if they're happy, they're going to refer us. And that's part of our business—referrals," Sherry said.

Sherry said that many of her clients are professionals. Doctors, nurses and teachers are among the professions in which her clients work. She told the story of one nurse who was so embarrassed by the black hairs on her face that she rarely spoke to patients, and always kept her head down. After the electrolysis, the woman gained confidence in herself and was a changed person.

Not everyone with unwanted hair is a candidate for electrolysis. Sherry said the hormonal system of a person must be balanced. An abnormal release of male hormones in a female will cause excessive hair growth.

Sherry is very particular about whom she will perform electrolysis on. In cases where she believes there may be a problem, she recommends that the client see an endocrinologist before she will perform the procedure. For younger women, Sherry usually requires a doctor's note okaying the electrolysis because she wants to be sure there is no problem, like ovarian cysts, being overlooked.

Three years ago, Sherry added permanent cosmetics to her business. She is board certified and has had her own eyebrows and eyelids permanently colored. She also offers lip lining and plans to have her lips lined in the next few months.

"Permanent cosmetics basically enhance what you already have. I love it because when I get up I don't have that 'blah look.' I think it's the way of the future," Sherry said.

Besides permanent eyelining, lip lining, and eyebrow penciling, Sherry offers cosmetic cover-up of scars. The process

Benefits are no longer just fringe

by NICK BROWN

The cost of living has increased over the last 10 years even though inflation has been under control. Very quietly the cost of housing, food, travel and clothing has increased 96 percent.

The intent of tax reform was to lower taxes for the average family, but in voluntary life insurance, and many other benefits can be purchased much more cheaply through your employer even though you pay for these on a payroll deduction basis.

2. One of the most valuable plans currently available is a 401K salary deferral plan to provide for your retirement. This plan company is also spending $3,500 or more for fringe benefits. This is an important resource in your personal financial planning and you should do everything you can to maximize it. Be aware of what benefits are provided to you at no cost.

Find out what additional benefits you can purchase voluntarily on a payroll deduction basis or pre-tax basis and get a written statement from your employer detailing the provisions of each one of these plans. Only by doing these last three things, can you make sure that this very important company provided benefit is maximized for you and your family.

Editor's note: Nick J. Brown, president of The Planning Group, Glenview, Illinois, a financial planning and consulting firm that counsels individuals to This Way To Grayslake, IL 60030 and business in all 50 Wealth in care of the or 2203B Lakeside states. Your questions Lakeland Newspapers, Dr., Bannockburn, IL are invited by writing 30 W. Whitney St., 60015.

This Way to Wealth

reality, while tax rates are lower, the actual dollars paid in income, social security and property taxes have increased.

Non-cash benefits provided by your employer were called "fringe" benefits but now they are an expected portion of the average family's lifestyle in order to make ends meet.

The need to provide for retirement, salary continuation protection in the event of disability, health care, legal expenses, financial planning, education expenses and many others which was considered a "perk" or fringe benefit is now a foundation for family budgeting.

With the increasing cost of college expenses, many parents' plans for retirement savings are being scuttled. This makes it all the more important that you take advantage of every benefit opportunity provided.

The following are three actions you can take to make the most of your benefit package:

1. The first thing to do is to get a detailed benefit statement of all employer paid benefits and a listing of the options you have to voluntarily save or contribute to additional programs. These are usually provided on a wholesale basis to employees. Such items as supplemental retirement benefit, additional disability income, may exist if your employer already has a profit sharing plan. You can elect to defer pre-tax dollars and have them accumulate on a tax deferred basis until you retire.

With the severe restrictions on IRAs where a great number of people have lost this retirement opportunity, the 401K program becomes even more important.

Try to contribute the maximum your employer will allow and choose balance between guaranteed investment choices like bonds, certificates of deposit, guaranteed money market accounts and stock mutual funds. Many employers only have the option of putting these funds in their stock or a single investment option. Meet with your personnel manager or human resources department director to find out in writing exactly what benefits are available.

3. Once you have a complete list of the options available through your company you can make more rational choices in your own personal financial planning. The cost of fringe benefits to most companies is approximately 35 percent of base wages. In other words, for every $10,000 of salaries that are paid, the

County gets Alzheimer's Unit

The Ashley Group Inc., Glenview, has announced the signing of a management contract and investment agreement with Evangelical Health Systems, Oak Brook, to manage and invest in The Ashley Centre, a 260-bed facility for Alzheimer's Disease patients to be located on a 20-acre campus in Lake County. Upon completion, the Ashley Centre will be the largest Alzheimer's-specific extended care facility in the nation.

Because of the increasing need for such a dedicated Alzheimer's facility, the Centre is expected to draw patients from throughout the Chicago and Milwaukee areas.

The Ashley Group has been developing elements of the facility plan and patient care program for the Ashley Centre over the past three years under the leadership of Walter G. Cornett, III, chairman. Ground will be broken for construction of the 414 million facility this summer with completion scheduled for the fall of 1990.

The Centre, when completed, will employ over 150 people. The Certificate of Need was received from the Illinois Health Facilities Planning Board in November, 1987.

Evangelical Health Systems (EHS), is the largest healthcare system in the Chicago metropolitan area, with five hospitals (1,900 beds). In recent years, EHS has expanded the scope of its comprehensive healthcare programs beyond acute care services. EHS now manages eight ambulatory care facilities, four nursing homes, six retirement residences, 14 physician office buildings, and a mental health counseling network with 11 locations. The management contract and investment agreement with Ashley is part of the continued expansion of these related healthcare programs.

Makeup

Permanent cosmetics, according to Sherry and Tina Cudworth, an employee in her Lake Bluff office, may be applied as lightly as a client wishes. Make up may be applied over them to add different colors, or to change the affect. Candidates for permanent cosmetics are people who want to always look their best, whether they are sleeping, swimming or at a party. It is also helpful for older women who have trouble seeing close up, and for women who are allergic to conventional make up.

In the past year, Sherry has expanded her business quite a bit. She opened a second office inside the Tanning Experience Ltd. in Mundelein last spring. In the fall of '88, she chose S. Cedar Lake Rd. as her next location. Polly Hacke works with her in both offices.

Sherry will soon be celebrating the grand opening of her fourth office on Rockland Rd. in Lake Bluff where both she and Tina are working. Several types of facials will also be offered at this office.

A member of the American Electrolysis Assn., the Intl. Guild of Professional Electrolysis, and the Electrolysis Assn. of Illinois.

Sherry offers free consultations at her four offices and stresses that she is not pushy. She understands that everyone may not be able to afford electrolysis, but always cautions perspective clients to bleach and trim unwanted hairs until they decide to make an appointment so that they don't distort the papilla. Sherry's number is (312) 244-1640.

Film Reviews

Romance stories concerning various teenage love affairs are a hot media item, resulting in reels of old and new movie releases on the subject, and many more in summer's cinematic hopper.

Stemming from the reaction of critics and just individuals at its nationwide opening last week, "Say Anything," the latest story about young love, is the best film of its kind to come along in a long, long time. This may even be one of the top flicks of the year.

This one deals with a teenage beauty that has more than a straight A average and her attraction to a seemingly unambitious youth.

The young girl's relationship with her father is also the core of the plot.

What makes this movie different is its close resemblance to real life because dad is a real person, with real problems. The young Lochinvar may have shallow ambitions (to become a kick-box champ) but he is interesting and tender.

Theirs is a love story of seeking, learning with a touch of sadness.

Ione Skye plays our Juliet walking in beauty both physically and spiritually.

John Cusack does a fine job as her dreamy beau and John Mahoney's version of a father that cares is a joy.

This one rates five out of five stars and is hopefully a sign of good warm weather films to come.

Eating Out

Sunday is the biggest dining out day of the year with the idea of taking Mom for an enjoyable meal, sans all the work she's used to doing a very popular one.

In the Lakeland area, many fine restaurants are offering the favorite dining event of the day, a special Mothers' Day Brunch.

If one wants the best for Mom, and is willing to take a slight drive for it, the brunch that is rated by epicures as the best in the country can be found at the Hamilton Hotel in Itasca, just south of the Woodfield Mall off Rte. 53.

In the same the classy category, another famed brunch, complete with ice sculptures and roses, can be had at the Abbey in Fontana, Wis., just west of Lake Geneva.

Closer to home, Zachery's at the Gurnee Holiday Inn is serving a champagne brunch featuring specialties from Greece, Italy and Spain.

Maravillas in Fox Lake will have an all you can eat brunch with four servings at 10 a.m., noon, 2 and 4 p.m. Eggs Benedict, leg of lamb and smoked fish lead the menu here.

The Fireside in Libertyville has poached salmon and chicken Florentine on the brunch menu.

Don't forget to make reservations as the crowds taking Mom out will as usual be large and ravenous.

These brunches range in price from just over $20 per person down to $8.95 in the order in which they are listed.

Cruise sightseeing

Jayme Peters, hostess in Dolly Arthur's house, a popular museum having displays depicting a time when community vice was a community virtue in Ketchikan, Alaska, during the Gold Rush Days, will show Lakeland Newspaper Alaskan cruisers memorabilia of the wildest days in Alaska's history when small towns like Juneau and Ketchikan survived on fishing, timber, gold-mining and cash register affection.

Scheffen 'carves' lead to Country Fest

When Doug Scheffen grew tired of his job in tool and die work in Green Bay, Wis., and decided to "carve out" a new future for himself, he took the challenge literally and Chisler Sign Carvers was born.

Beginning after work and on weekends in 1976, he taught himself to use a router and carved small redwood signs at fairs until, in 1983, he quit his job and went into carving full time.

He built a cedar workshop trailer and traveled to county fairs and art and craft shows in the Green Bay area, Door County, and the north woods.

As his carving became more professional, he became more creative, and the artwork on his signs began to separate him from other carvers of simpler works.

His reputation grew, as did the demand for his custom carved and painted artwork and large commercial signs. He's created signs for shops in Door County as well as for businesses and restaurants from Appleton, Wis. to Michigan's Upper Peninsula. His small redwood plaques also graced mailboxes and signposts of hundred's of homes across Wisconsin.

In 1984 and every year since, Scheffen exhibited at the Sport, Fishing, and Outdoor Show at the O'Hare Expo Center in Chicago. His followings in Chicago steadily grew and in 1986 Scheffen moved to Long Grove, Ill.

He now works exclusively in northern Illinois, except for July and August which he spends in Eagle River, Wis., and a three day fall festival in October in Sister Bay. He works out of his home, does area art and craft fairs and festivals, and had a small shop in downtown Long Grove for the Christmas season last year.

Scheffen became very interested in hand carving with chisels and now offers fine bas relief in addition to routered carving. While the demand for small residential plaques is less in Illinois than Wisconsin, orders for large custom signs keep him designing, carving, and painting in between the busy summer and Christmas seasons. His ability to artistically depict everything from wildlife to company logos makes him unique in this area.

Scheffen specializes in dogs and has done horses and animals ranging from roadrunners and penguins to lions and bears. He has carved every vehicle imaginable: motorcycles, race cars, tractors, and oceanliners. He is currently handcarving a large sign with a carousel horse for a carnival company.

Chisler Sign Carvers is one of 45 unique crafters participating in the Saturday and Sunday, May 13 and 14, Country Festival in historic Richmond. Hosting crafters are Fox Hunt Shoppe and A Day in the Country from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Rte. 173, one block east of the intersection of Rte. 12 and Rte. 173 (next to Hunter Country Club).

In addition to the craft fair, visitors to the Country Festival are invited to participate in the shop walk of the three sponsoring north Richmond retail shops (Fox Hunt Shoppe, A Day in the Country, and Bob's Bargain Mart) and be eligible to win one of several prizes, including $25 gift certificates, hand dipped chocolates from Anderson's Candy Shop, Sunday brunch for two at Andres Steak House, pizza party for four at Heuer's Restaurant, and lunch for two from the Wooden Bridge Cafe. No purchase is required to participate in three-store shop walk.

For further information regarding May 13 and 14 Country Festival activities, contact Sue Klouka (A Day in the Country) at (815)678-3731.

Col. Bill says it's time to get boat ready to go

by COL. BILL RADKE

It's time to get boats ready for the coming season. This includes the annual maintenance.

One point noted was our trailer tires show signs of wear, or old age, to the surface tread but tire

Another time saver in loading can be worked out by substituting a thick rope of adequate strength for a thin wire cable. This too moves the boat faster with fewer handle turns as the winch spool quickly fills.

Trailer lights are very important for stop, turns and night travel. If they test unusually dim, it could be a grounding problem. Grounded by the ball hitch connection, lights may dim if the ball has been overgreased or heavily painted.

A pair of mallard ducks have taken a liking to the yard recently. They come to feed with the rabbits, squirrels and other birds, but mainly they like the ground level bird bath. Though too shallow for swimming, they find great enjoyment just to stand in it.

multiple interests of pleasure boating, water skiing and fishing. Most boaters frequently engage in two or more of those outdoor recreational interests.

It follows that each craft should be in tip-top starting condition each season. Owners frequently dry-prop vessels during the winter months and the scheduled "shakedown cruise" verifies results, so carefully inspect everything before the initial launching.

We started prepping last weekend by hooking our trailered boat to the car's ball hitch and towing it 50 miles home from pre-water maintenance and inspection. Cleaning the hull inside and out, and waxing finished surfaces is always good sidewalls. Small cracks are developing which will grow with use. It's something trailer boaters need to watch very closely.

If winching the boat from water to trailer seems strenuous, add some cable length and an extra pulley at the boat, it reduces handle pressure by half.

Hubbard St. Dancers

Hubbard Street solid dance force

by TOM WITOM

Whether it's premiering new additions to the repertoire or performing old favorites, Chicago's Hubbard Street Dance Co. continues to build upon its reputation as a solid force in modern dance.

In its brief 10-year history, the group has come of age. During its 1989 spring tour at the Civic Opera House,

Critics Choice

April 28 to May 7, Hubbard Street introduces Chicagoans to "Rasa," a sparkling abstract ballet involving exuberant jumps and leaps by seven dancers to the music of sitarist Ravi Shankar.

They also gave a midwest debut to "Super Straight is coming down," a physically demanding and emotionally disturbing piece. The work, set to synthesized music by Dutch composer Tom Willems, starts with five dancers emerging from clear-plastic garment bags and embarking on an eerie journey. Frankly, this number left us with a cold, isolated feeling.

"Diary," choreographed by Lynne Taylor-Corbett, also involved a journey of sorts. This one, in three movements, had Kitty Hilsabeck and Alberto Arias reliving in dance past memories of madness and sadness and lover's promises. Music, written and sung by Judith Lander, provided strong appeal to the heart.

Another jazzy number, "Appearances," demonstrated how the male and female roles overlap. The men and women in 11-minutes during this number shared and switched costumes.

However, it was two oldies that drew the most "Bravos." Hubbard Street's Claire Bataille and Ron De Jesus turned heads with their stylish "Georgia," danced to a Willie Nelson vocal of the tune. Finally, the company brought the house down with its concluding signature work, Lou Conte's "The '40's," a smart, high-stepping retrospective.

The Spring Festival of Dance continues with the Harlem Dance Theatre troupe. And for those who missed the Hubbard Street Dance Co., they will return for a brief stint, Aug. 22 through 27, at Ravinia.

Small gallery bodes future space look

by DEVIN BLAKE

Owner Warren Wright has opened his first gallery next to the water wheel at Bannockburn Green in Bannockburn. The gallery is new, small and not quite crowded as yet; however, with the stable of artists on hand the gallery doors will be swinging open quickly.

The problem many gallery owners have is finding enough professional artists with good representations who are willing to supply them with their best works. The larger galleries get the top quality, and the rejects are then passed on to others. Although many artists at the Wright Gallery were professional and noteworthy in their areas, some whose works were on the walls are poor imitators and second-rate artists.

A must to see is the work of Duska Mistic, a Yugoslavian artist with an interesting arsenal of painting techniques. He paints ICON-type works with a flare for the stained-glass appearance.

Susan Kuznitsky, a pastel painter in the mold of Degas or Cassat, presented some interesting "Hat" series pastels. These were vivid in color and technique and stood out waiting to be examined.

Where movies were made in Hawaii

by JIM WARNKEN, PRESIDENT
NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

"Blue Hawaii," "South Pacific," even the old television show "Fantasy Island," were filmed mostly on the Hawaiian Islands. But can you find those picture-perfect beaches and waterfalls that were depicted on the silver screen?

Let's start with the lowering Twin Falls, which was the backdrop for the opening credits for "Fantasy Island."

It is known as Wailua Falls and can be found on the island of Kauai. To get to these 80-foot twin cascades, take Rte. 56 north from Lihue. Just as you enter the town of Kapaia, you will see a small sign to your left identifying the road to the falls. You will travel down that narrow road through about three miles of sugar cane. The falls will be on your right.

Let's stay in Kauai and get back on Rte. 56 to our next stop. Continue heading north about five miles to the Cocoa Palms Hotel. It will be on your left.

This hotel was the setting for much of Elvis movie "Blue Hawaii." The manager will be glad to show you the hut in which Elvis stayed while filming the movie and came back to many times.

Guess what? Our next movie site is also on Kauai. Continuing on Rte. 56 to Kauai's north coast, look for Mile Marker 33. You will find a crooked footpath leading to Lumahai Beach. If the name doesn't sound familiar, you might know it as "Nurse's Beach" from the movie "South Pacific."

Let's go to the island of Oahu for one last stop. Take Rte. 72 from Waikiki to Koko Head, then turn onto the side road that leads to Hanauma Bay Beach.

Much of "Blue Hawaii" was also filmed on this, the prettiest beach on Oahu.

Lake County At A Glance

School vote looms

LAKE ZURICH—Survey returns of school district 95 voters show strong support for a classroom building program at the junior and senior high schools, plus an auxiliary gymnasium, little theater and swimming pool. Cost could be from $2-million to $5-million and add $25 to $60 in taxes for each $100,000 of home market value. The school board will decide which projects shall be on the fall ballot.

Board has dilemma

HAWTHORN WOODS—Legality of six members sitting on the five-member Lake Zurich Rural Fire Protection board is still to be resolved. Former President Ed Coutre was reappointed in February 1988. Donald "Red" Potter was named to the board in March of this year. Both say they have valid, three-year appointments. The County Board, which approves the appointments, will decide the issue at its June meeting.

New staff look

ANTIOCH—The office of the Antioch Village Hall is undergoing changes. Now that long-time village (super) clerk Marilyn Sterbenz has retired, that office has been filled by a part-time appointee, Sara Lehn, who will just take meeting minutes and sign checks requiring her signature. Shirley Gutowski will take on some other duties as village treasurer and Laurel Dahl will be the office manager. Mayor Robert Wilton announced his intention of hiring another full-time staff person to work on the computers and billing. The matter of the proposed village administrator is still in limbo.

Madole resigns

HAINESVILLE—The Hainesville Police Dept. is in a state of transition following the resignation of Police Chief Tom Madole. Madole, who has been part-time chief of the village for five years, is resigning because of "personal reasons". Ken Koop was named sergeant and will oversee the department for 90 days when his status will be evaluated.

School eyes factory

GRAYSLAKE—Grayslake Dist. 46 Board of Education members were told a vacant factory across the street from district offices could help space problems. Presently vacant is the 85,000 square foot Midwest Transformer & Coil building located off Rte. 83.

Winkelhake resigns

VERNON HILLS—Police Chief Ralph Winkelhake resigned to become chief of police in Iowa City, Iowa, tendering his letter of resignation at the last board meeting. Winkelhake said he is resigning to "advance my career and lifestyle for the benefit of my family," adding that he thought it was a different and unique opportunity. He signed the agreement with Iowa City, Tuesday, May 9. "There's nothing here I'm unhappy about. I have no great desire to leave. I just can't turn this down," he said, adding that the appointment was made by Iowa City's city manager out of about 200 applications.

Board inactive

MUNDELEIN—The state's attorney's case against Mundelein Trustee Richard Starkey, "Right now is in an expedited briefing schedule," said Chief of the Civil Div. Jack Bartels. "We are briefing issues in the case, preparing them for court in a fast manner for the May 17 hearing," he added. Meanwhile, the power and actions of the Mundelein Board of Trustees has been held in suspension pending the hearing decision on whether the board acted legally in allowing Trustee Richard Starkey to vote on his own nomination and election to fill an unexpired term, as Starkey's term had only a few days left.

Mayor accused

LINDENHURST—Citizens Action Party (CAP) Chairman Robert Warrender accused Lindenhurst Village Mayor Robert Ratch at a Village Board meeting this week of planting an independent candidate for Village trustee into the April 4 election. Warrender was suggesting that the 500+ votes received by the candidate, Jack Sides, may have made the difference for him and the other members of his party running for trustee positions. The allegation caused Ratch and the board to laugh. Ratch replied, "I won't dignify that with an answer." Warrender was upset that Sides was appointed to a position on the Lindenhurst Planning Commission which three CAP members had applied for. Ratch said one of the CAP members threatened to upset the regular Village Board meetings if he didn't receive the appointment.

Help for homeless

WAUKEGAN—Local chapter of Habitat for Humanity, a new all-volunteer organization where members build homes for other members, needs potential homebuyers to serve on the board of directors and steering committee. Next meeting will be Tuesday, May 23, at 7 p.m. in Immaculate Conception Church, 508 Grand Ave., Waukegan. An anonymous donor has contributed the $3,000 start-up cost of the affiliate. Other donations of supplies, skills and labor are needed. For information call Mr. and Mrs. Jim Donovan at (312) 623-0590.

Garrett appointed

LAKE VILLA—The Lake Villa Twp. Board voted to appoint Jo Garrett, wife of Chicago Attorney John Garrett and resident of Lake Villa Twp., to the Northwest Sanitary Dist. Advisory Bd. The township was informed by Lake County Board Member and Chairman of the Northwest Sanitary Dist. Advisory Bd., Suzy Schmidt, that it should have a voting member on the board, as does the county, Fox Lake and Round Lake. Schmidt said Lake Villa is considering hooking its sewer lines up to the Fox Lake Wastewater Treatment Plant in the near future. Expansion is planned for the plant which will cost Lake Villa residents, who have been paying taxes on the plant, more money. Schmidt, also a Lake Villa resident, said she does not know why she was never informed that Lake Villa rightfully had a vote.

650 will hear Skinner at Friday's GOP fete

Secretary of the U. S. Transportation Dept., Samuel K. Skinner of Lake Forest, will draw 650 Republican faithful to the spring dinner of the Lake County Republican Federation on Friday, May 12, says vice-president and dinner chairman O. Ralph Edwards. Skinner will be the featured speaker. He will be introduced by Illinois Secretary of State Jim Edgar. The GOP fund-raiser will be held at the Mundelein Holiday Inn, Rtes. 45 and 83, starting with a reception and cocktail hour at 6 p.m. Dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m. The Cabaret orchestra will play for dining and dancing.

Federation President David L. Amory said the occasion "will enable us to honor a longtime federation colleague with extraordinary ability who is taking on major responsibilities in government."

Skinner became U.S. Transportation Secretary in February of this year. "Lake County, as is the President, is impressed with the manner in which Skinner has taken charge in Washington," Amory said. "He is one of President George Bush's most visible appointees. We who know him knew this would be the case. He is always direct, hard-working and, yet, has time to say something nice."

Prior to his appointment to the President's cabinet, Skinner was chairman of the Regional Transportation Authority of Northeastern Illinois for five years. In 1975 Skinner was appointed U.S. Attorney for the Northern Dist. of Illinois, the first career prosecutor in the district to have been named to this position.

Skinner received his undergraduate degree in accounting from the Univ. of Illinois in 1960. He then served as an officer in the U.S. Army during 1960 and 1961. He received his law degree from DePaul Univ. in 1966.

He is 50 years old and has three children—Thomas, a Chicago lawyer, presently serving as assistant to the governor for Economic Development, Steven, a third-year law student at the Univ. of Chicago, and Jane, a senior at Northwestern Univ.

Patron tickets at $175 per person are being sold by a committee headed by Barry MacLean, a federation vice-president. Committee members are Robert E. Allgyer, David L. Amory, Denis H. Carroll, Mrs. Harry B. Clow, Michael Cudahy, Stewart S. Dixon, O. Ralph Edwards, Ned L. Fisher, Mrs. Augustin S. Hart, Jr., Robert T.

Lansing, Laurence R. Lee, Michael J. Line, Veron R. Loucks, Jr., C.H. Randolph Lyon, Henry W. Meers, Mrs. Charles A. Meyer, Robert S. Murley, Robert P. Neal, L. Robert Pasquesi, George A. Ranney, Jr., Paul H. Robinson, Jr., Gordon H. Smith and Marshall I. Smith.

Co-chairmen for the $50 dinner ticket sales are Lake County Sheriff Clinton Grinnell and Jim LaBelle, Lake County Board member and general manager of the North Point Marina.

Gurnee schools prepare to say no to drugs

All systems are set for the annual 'Just Say No' to drugs day in Gurnee.

May 12 is 'Just Say No' day and that has been made official by a proclamation passed by the Gurnee Village Board.

"The board of education emphatically supports the 'Just Say No' concept," Gurnee Dist. 56 Board of Education President Tim McGrath said.

The day of activities will feature county officials, an Olympian and movies. Activities will kick off at 8:10 a.m. with skits and movies followed by Parkside Youth group, a presentation by Lake County Coroner Barbara Richardson and an appearance by Warren Twp. High School students.

Afternoon events will include an address by Gurnee Mayor Dick Welton, a demonstration by silver medal winner Juan Moreano of Zion. A balloon launch will cap off the day's festivities.

Classroom teachers have been emphasizing the importance of "Just Say No" during informal sessions in Gurnee Dist. 56.

Gallaugh to wear tracking device

The former director of court services in Lake County will be wearing an ankle electronic monitoring device until May 27.

George Gallaugh made the request before Winnebago County Court Judge David Smith. Smith granted the request.

Lake County Assistant State's Attorney Joseph

Collina argued against the electronic device.

He said there will be no appeal.

Gallaugh was sentenced to 30 days periodic imprisonment in April. He had been convicted of stealing some $340,000 while working for the court services.

GOP ticket sellers

Two Republicans are working behind the scenes on the annual Lake County Republican Federation dinner to be held Friday, May 12, at the Holiday Inn-Mundelein. They are O. Ralph Edwards, left, of Libertyville, chairman of the event that is expected to draw 650 persons, and Barry L. MacLean of Mettawa, chairman of sales for the $175 patron tickets. Speaker will be Samuel Skinner of Lake Forest, secretary of the U.S. Transportation Dept. and former chairman of the Regional Transportation Authority (RTA) for Northeastern Illinois.

Chicago firm offers water safety assurance

by STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

Water. It is a topic which touches everyone. Unless you're in a desert, it is hard to avoid. It may often both begin and end one's day.

But just what is good water? And how can it be protected?

A Chicago based company is trying to answer both those questions with a testing service which checks for some 25 pollutants which can be present in water.

"Most people who use the test have their own wells," Ivy Leamer said.

Leamer is vice president of Health Products Marketing, a company which distributes the test.

"The response has been good so far," she said.

The firm distributes the product, which costs from $125 to $150 and then sends the results to a laboratory in New Hampshire. There, the tests are analyzed and then sent back to the customer.

Offered in the package are both tests for radon in the air and radon in the water. Without the radon tests, the package costs $125.

In Lake County, water has been a source of concern for several years now. Well users in Gurnee last summer asked the village board to supply them with village water system and a package was presented earlier this year.

In Lake County, the Central Lake County Joint Action Water Agency (CLCJAWA) has been working on funding a water plant in Lake Bluff which will provide Lake Michigan water to residents from Gurnee to Vernon Hills.

"Even people on public water systems may use the test," Leamer said.

On the national level, the National Water Alliance has just completed sponsoring 'National Drinking Water Week' the first week of May. The week of activities is designed to increase public awareness of drinking water. Lead from lead pipes and solder used in some water distribution systems and home plumbing is causing some health problems, especially for younger children. Naturally occurring contaminants such as radon need attention in many water systems, according to a National Water Alliance press release.

Transmission of certain infectious diseases through the drinking water has been recognized as a public health problem since before the turn of the century. It began with the influx of workers into the cities and the Industrial Revolution.

"Government can only do so much. As citizens and consumers, you can help protect your drinking water. Start by finding out about the quality of your local drinking water system and working with the utilities and officials to protect and improve it," the release states.

For more information on the services call the Health Products Marketing, at (312) 644-8079.

Jones selects Gurnee over Vegas stardom

Gurnee resident Linda "Stoney" Jones of Gurnee, was offered a contract to perform her Elvis Presley impersonations but said no following a trip to Las Vegas.

"They offered me a contract but I would have had to live in New Jersey," Jones said.

Jones auditioned Friday for "An Evening at La Cage," show in Las Vegas and performed at the Riviera Hotel's second show.

"It was great. They really treated me good," Jones said.

But for now, Jones will be happy working at Anchor Glass in Gurnee.

"A lot of my co-workers come out to the shows,"

Jones, a six-year Gurnee resident, said.

Jones has been hit with an avalanche of media attention from Lake County press to the tabloids to TV. Now Milwaukee cable TV is interested in doing a feature on the impersonator.

"It's been really hard trying to get things done," she said.

Jones said there is a lot to consider when thinking about the Las Vegas scene.

"You might get a five or six-year contract, but what happens after that," Jones said.

"I just grew up with Elvis music," Jones said in explaining how the career got started.

Public forum

"Poisons from the Pentagon, Chemical/ Biological Warfare," will be the topic of a public forum sponsored by the Lake County Peace Alliance at 7:45 p.m. on Monday, May 15 at the Waukegan Public Library auditorium. Richard Hutchinson from the American Friends Service will discuss the increase in the amount of research.

MCHENRY BETTER THAN NEW

Handy owner has added many nice touches to this well kept home. 5 room, 3 bedroom with large yard, 1.5 car garage only 1/2 block from State Park. Central air, alarm, enclosed patio, etc. Lily Lake area. $81,500

ANTIOCH A LOT OF HOUSE

10 room, 4 or 5 bedroom in Sequil Terrace. Sliders from dining room and family room to covered deck on patio. 2.5 baths, rec room with built in bar, 2.5 car garage 2400 sq ft in all and just blocks from shopping, schools and parks. Reduced to $119,900

ANTIOCH COMPLETELY REMODELED

With new plumbing, electric, carpeting and septic system, this home is on a fenced double lot and features 6 rooms with 3 bedrooms and an attached 2 car garage. Cedar siding outside and like new inside, this is a lot of house for $59,900

ANTIOCH GREAT LAKE RIGHTS

And only a mile from town, this remodeled 7 room, 4 bedroom has new carpeting, cabinets & counter, a new stairway up to a big master bedroom with huge walk in closet and private entrance to a new bathroom. Large yard with shaded patio and room for garage. $74,900

ANTIOCH NOT A HANDYMAN SPECIAL

This home is in good shape, with 3 bedrooms, plenty of closets and great lake rights at Fetter's Park a block away. Garage needs some work to be useable and space heat is the only other fault, but located a mile from town in an up and coming area this is a good investment. $49,900

FOX LAKE DRAMATIC VIEW OF MINEOLA BAY

From every floor of this big one bedroom hillside home. Maintenance free aluminum exterior, patio and balcony overlooking landscaped backyard, extra lot available and lake rights to Chain at end of street. $62,900

WASHINGTON 2

228-02 Washington 2
Landmark Designs

Twin front gables, bay windows, and a large wrap around covered front porch give a feeling of nineteenth century comfort to the Washington 2. The main floor is designed to be a busy place, with a living room to one side of the entry, and large family room to the other. At the back is a country kitchen with central island and attached pantry. In good weather, meals can be served on the rear deck accessible directly from the kitchen.

The dining area is indicated at the back of the living room mainly for the aesthetics of having the table by the fireplace and adjacent windows. However, some cooks may prefer to serve in the family room, which is closer to the kitchen.

A den/utility area in the back of the house provides a quiet work space or optional guest room. A half bath tucked between the den and kitchen means that guests don't have to trek all the way upstairs to find the main bathrooms on the second floor.

Extra space has been provided in the two-car garage for a shop area or storage. Do-it-yourselfers and home canners will find plenty of room for workbench, freezer, tools and supplies. This storage is in addition to the pantry, linen shelves, and large hall closet.

The upstairs is entirely devoted to sleeping quarters. The master suite includes private bath with raised tub, and a walk-in closet. The two smaller bedrooms share a bath and vanity between them. The master suite and front bedroom both enjoy bay windows similar to the ones that brighten the living and family rooms.

For a study plan of the Washington 2 (228-02), send $5.00 to Landmark Designs, P.O. Box 2832-SC, Eugene, OR 97402. (Be sure to specify plan name & number when ordering). Designers, Architects and readers with plans they would like to see featured also are invited to contact Landmark.

THIS WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

Weekly Tip: Be objective; understand the problem before you speak.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Bring plans to fulfillment early in the week. Save the weekend for unexpected events. Give yourself extra time to keep scheduled appointments.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) Others will surprise you when they listen and approve of your ideas. The stakes are high, and your organizational skills are appreciated.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) You love to play "devil's advocate" with other people's ideas. A lot more will be accomplished when criticism is constructive and based on fact.

Cancer (June 22 to Jul. 21) You may find yourself defending philosophies surrounding the female gender, home, family, and matters that involve nourishment and protection.

Leo (Jul. 22 to Aug. 21) Moonlighting can bring in extra cash, but disrupts family life. Your question to yourself, "Do I have the energy?" is valid. Reconsider your schedule.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Moving forward into favorable money cycles will help you plan recreational/vacation projects. Help your temperament by slowing the fast pace.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Look for a change in standard operating procedures at the workplace. Plan outdoor projects now, while the growing season is still young.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Sometimes it pays to play ignorant and avoid getting involved in sticky issues. Plans may be subject to change. Avoid activities requiring detail.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) A burst of energy and good luck will brighten your life. The one you idolize will enjoy your mood. Try out new social environments.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Failure to go with the gang, unless invited, will leave you feeling left out. Be more extemporaneous, and stop worrying about being accepted.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) After a difficult matter gets sorted out, you will not be in a favorable position to take action. Intellectual study is favorable and recommended.

Pisces (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) It is best not to let negative matters smolder. Say what you feel and mean what you say. Give others a chance to bend to your desires.

Where to Worship

ANTIOCH

Calvary Baptist Church of Antioch will hold its spring revival services from May 14 - 17 at the church, 554 Parkway Ave., Antioch. The times of the services are 7 p.m. on Sunday and Monday, through Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. The guest speaker will be the Reverend Dennis Shaw, pastor of the Como Baptist Church, Sterling, Ill. For information, call the church at (312)395-3393.

LINDENHURST

"Celebrate God's Love" is the theme of vacation Bible school at St. Mark Lutheran Church in Lindenhurst. The community is invited to attend the classes for three-year-olds through eighth grade students on June 12 through 23. Sessions are from 9 to 11:30 a.m. each day. The church is located at 1822 E. Grand Ave., Lindenhurst. To register or for further information, call the church office at (312)356-8140. Pre-registration is required by May 31.

MUNDELEIN

A "Walk Through the New Testament" seminar will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday, May 21, at Calvary Baptist Church, 1221 W. Maple, Mundelein. For registration information, call (312)566-6650 or (312)680-7156.

As part of its centennial celebration, the Community Protestant Church of Mundelein is planning an evening of musical memories and slide program on Wednesday, June 21, following a pot luck supper at 6:30 p.m. On Saturday, June 24, a centennial banquet will be held at Mundelein High School. Tickets will be $6.50; reservations required. On Sunday, May 14, Rev. Robert Strom, who was the interim minister in 1973, will be the guest speaker. On Sunday, May 21, Rev. Tom Sampson will return to the pulpit he occupied from 1942 to 1956. A reception will be held after the services, and the guest ministers will be taken out for lunch. If anyone would like to join these luncheons, call the church office to make a reservation.

Resurrection

8102 Bilvin Street
P.O. Box 309
Spring Grove, Illinois 60081
(815) 675-2601

Have you been bruised, rejected, wounded? So was Jesus Christ-and by His own people. But, Isaiah 61:1 says: "...He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted..."

God has raised up the ministry of Resurrection Fellowship as an outreach to the hurting--physically, emotionally and spiritually. He has restoration and healing for you through the blood of Jesus.

We invite you to come and be blessed in the presence of the Lord.

Tournaments in Vernon Hills, Lindenhurst, Libertyville and Mundelein are not open to participants under 17 years of age.

The tournament championship is scheduled for Aug. 11, 12 and 13 at Round Lake.

Furlan plans tourneys

Dug Out Park in Trevor, Wis. has set the dates for more spring tournaments.

On May 20 and 21 there will be a men's 16 inch tournament for teams with class "B" ratings and below. This is a double elimination tourney with an entry fee of $75. On the same weekend a co-ed volleyball tournament will be held.

On May 27 and 28 is the Memorial 12 inch tournament for men's non-classic teams. Entry fee is $80. There will be trophies and traveling expenses awarded for the tournaments.

The "Spring Fling" championship was won by Hiller & Hamm-Budweiser. The team outscored its opponents 62-21 for four games.

For more information, call tournament director Tom Furlan at (312) 395-5788 or (414) 862-9936.

Ricci wins honor

Ken Ricci, Round Lake Senior High School athletic director, has been honored by the National Council of Secondary Schools Athletic Directors (NCSSAD). Ricci represented the State of Illinois for the National Athletic Director of the Year Award.

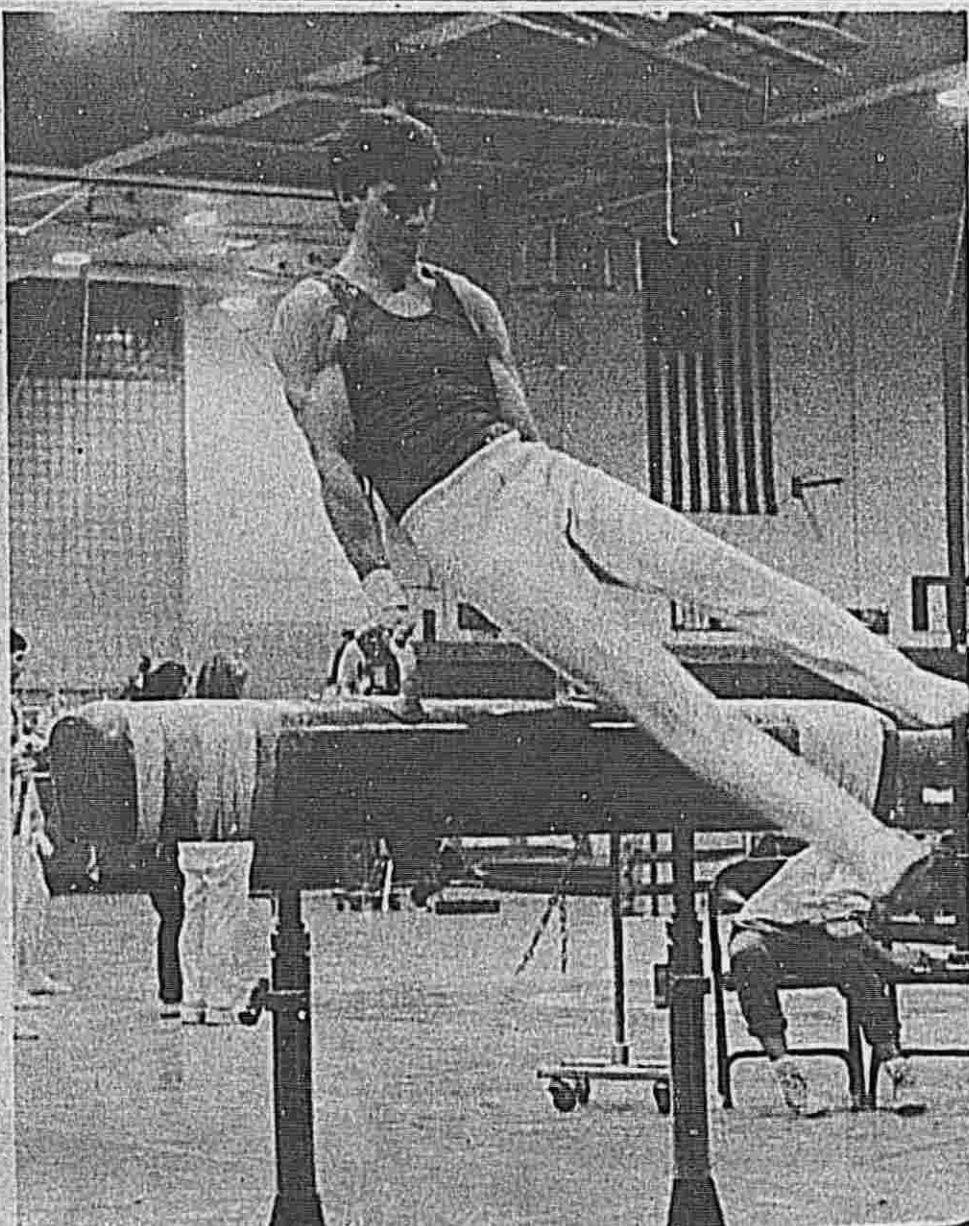

Ricci was honored in Peoria May 1 at a special luncheon as the winner of the four State Regional National Athletic Dir. of the Year. He received a plaque from the NCSSD which is a national organization that promotes high school athletics across the country.

In 1987-88 Ricci was recognized as the Illinois Athletic Dir. of the Year - the highest award an athletic director can achieve and was given by the Illinois Athletic Dir. Assn.

Ricci has been athletic director at Round Lake for 20 years and also served Panthers head basketball coach.

Sexton helps Huskies

Antioch High School graduate Julie Sexton helped Northern Illinois University's softball team win the North Suburban Conference title. Sexton, an all-North Suburban Conference athlete while playing basketball and softball for Antioch, had two doubles and a pair of triples in the three-day tournament in Akron, Ohio. NIU pounded out 33 hits winning the title and improving to 7-1.

Perfecting his routine

Season-long weakness costs Lancers

Weaknesses, it has been said, can have a way of catching up with a baseball team.

Just ask the College of Lake County baseball squad. The Lancers won more than 30 games this spring but had their season ended because of a year-long problem: runners left on base.

"We could not get the key hits with men on base," CLC Coach Gene Hanson said.

Monday was the prime example of the CLC problem. CLC needed to win just one game of a doubleheader to win its sectional title and advance to the state finals. But the Lancers left 22 men on base and were eliminated by Oakton 7-3 and 8-1.

"We did not beat ourselves," Hanson said.

The Lancers, finishing the season with a 34-17 record and second place Skyway Conference finish, had defeated Oakton three straight times before Monday's doubleheader. Most of the two games in Grayslake were played in a cold rain.

CLC had the early lead in both games against Oakton.

The Lancers scored single runs in the first and third innings in game one before Oakton used three infield singles of four hits to score three runs in the fifth inning.

The Lancers tied the game in their half of the inning as Brad Dodge connected with an RBI single.

Oakton used a CLC strength - the long ball - to put the game out of reach. John Calarco hit a shot which broke up the tie game in the sixth inning. In the eighth, a homer by the Skyway Conference's leading home run hitter, Bob Slobedik, ballooned the lead to 7-3.

CLC threatened in the ninth inning and the Oakton coach intentionally walked Roy Salinas to bring the potential game-tying run to the plate, but CLC did not get the grand slam.

In the second game, CLC led 1-0 after four innings on four walks as Tim Unroe's walk with the bases loaded gave CLC a lead.

That held up until the fourth inning.

While the rest of Lake County grumbled over the snowstorm in May, Antioch track and field Coach Norm Hahn couldn't be happier.

"It helped. We had our prom on Friday so postponing the meet was great for us," Hahn said.

Meet officials tried to start the meet on Saturday, but only three heats of the 100 yard dash were run before the race officials at Lake Forest decided that a delay was a better decision.

And on Monday, the weather wasn't much better as rain and wind replaced snow. But Antioch didn't mind, finishing in fourth place with 51 points. Zion-Benton took top honors with 95 points to Libertyville's 85 points. Waukegan West beat out Antioch for third place with 62 points to Antioch's 51.

The fourth place finish represented the best in Antioch's Hahn's 20-year tenure as track and field coach.

Antioch, which travels to Zion-Benton May 13 with the rest of the North Suburban Conference for the league meet, was followed by Stevenson's 41

State finals
next hurdle
for gymnasts

This is what the Mundelein Mustangs boys gymnastics team has been pointing towards all year.

The state finals.

"It's been our chief goal all year," Mundelein Coach Doug Foerch said.

The Mustangs head into the Elite Eight state finals at Forest View High School in Arlington Heights after breezing through their sectional at Palatine Fremd. Mundelein, which started post-season competition by winning its regional, finished the sectional with 156.7 points, just shy of Foerch's pre-meet goal of 158 points.

The battle in the sectional was for second place and Libertyville topped Hersey 146-139.

Foerch said the Mustangs have several chances to get to the individual finals, which begin at 7 p.m. May 13. The preliminaries begin at 1 p.m. May 12.

"We could get 11 or 12 routines to the finals," Foerch said.

T. J. Dortch won all his events at the sectional. He had a 9.03 in the all-around, 9.3 in the parallel bars, 9.5 in the high bars, 9.1 on the pommel horse and 9.3 on the floor exercise. "He can still improve. I think the state meet will be his best meet yet," the coach said of Dortch.

Dortch had won the floor exercise, all-around and pommel horse at the regional meet.

Dave Stilke was fifth in the high bar and sixth in the vault for Mundelein.

Jeff Turnbull could qualify for the finals in the rings or the high bar.

CLC started the sectional tournament in fine fashion, with five home runs in wins over Harper and Oakton.

Brad Dodge, Salinas and John Dahn all hit round trippers against Harper.

Bruce Wimer was the winning pitcher, as he recovered from a slow start.

points and Mundelein and North Chicago finished in a tie for seventh with 30. Carmel edged Highland park 24-22 for ninth place and Barrington, Warren and Grant all tied with 20 points. Lake Zurich and Wauconda had a rough time of it, finishing with five and zero points, respectively.

Antioch has been anchored this year by steady performances from seniors.

Several performed their best at Lake Forest. Jim Keim had a 6-3 in the high jump, an event won by Grant's Joe Wach with a 6-5.

Jeremy Richter had a 135 in the discus and Chris Horton overcame the slippery conditions to post a 12-6 in the pole vault.

In relays, the all-junior group of Ed Maginn, Chris Beattie, Mark Erikson and Matt Davidson finished second in the two-mile run.

Other performances from area athletes included Mundelein distance ace Nathan Sweet winning the 800 meter run and 1,600 meter runs. Carmel's 800 meter relay team garnered top honors.

Skyhawks win second title, sectional challenges next

Lake County girls track teams will be traveling to Cary-Grove in hopes of garnering bids to the state track and field meet.

Johnsburg, the Northwest Suburban Conference champ, will be hoping to continue momentum gained winning its second straight conference title.

"Sectionals will be our biggest challenge so far this year. Winning conference is one thing, but when you go up against bigger schools like Antioch, Crystal Lake Central and McHenry, it is a different ballgame," Johnsburg Coach Bob Texidor said.

The Skyhawks did have a chance to enjoy cake and a victory lap in the sunset after winning the NWSC meet. JHS edged Grayslake 125-113 for the title. The Johnsburg mentor, though, was busy making sure an injured miler, Kristine Nordling, was OK after being injured. He did not see the Skyhawks overcome the Rams in the track events.

"There was no time when I thought we had it," Texidor said.

The day began with the dawning of a new era as Wauconda High officials dedicated the new all-season track. Grayslake led early, gaining an 11 point lead on the Skyhawks at one point.

All told, Johnsburg's depth carried the day as the Skyhawks gained seven first-place finishes, four by relay teams.

"We knew it would be difficult (to win the title) going in because they were 7-0 in duals and we were 6-1. But the kids gave it their best shot. They never quit," Grayslake Coach Kathy Englund, whose team will also be at Cary-Grove, said.

Johnsburg's 800 meter medley relay team, the 3200 meter relay, the 400 meter relay and the 800 meter relay team all won first place honors.

Jenny Heumann, Angie DeWulf, Michelle Litt and Betty Barrett ran the medley relays. Running the 400 and 800 meter events were Jessie Boyko, DeWulf, Barrett and Heumann. In the 3,200 the lineup was Jenny Bachne, Jodi and Jackie Griese and Jenny Asplund.

Heumann won the 100 yard dash in 13.1 for the Skyhawks. The senior topped Grayslake Nancy Brenner in the dual meet between the two teams but had lost to Lake Zurich's Alicia Blanks in the dual season and at the Jacobs Invitational.

"Jenny has a way of getting up for big meets," Texidor said.

After Grayslake and Johnsburg, the race was for third place and Grant won it with a strong 78.5 point finish.

Leading the way for Coach Dick Jelinek's team was Cindy Edwards. Edwards won the 800 meter run again with a time of 2:28.8. Grant won the 1600 meter relay race. Grant also had a strong finish from the 800 meter relay team, which was second. Nicole Czerchowski, Grant's distance specialist, won the 3,200 meter run with a 12:59.6. She was also fourth in the 1,600 meter run.

Lake Zurich finished fourth with 69 points.

Among other NWSC teams, Round Lake's Tammy Borque keyed the Panthers' fifth place, 51 point effort. She finished second in the 3,200 meter run and won the 100 meter hurdles.

Host Wauconda finished with 28 points. In addition to the dedication of the new track, the day for the Bulldogs was highlighted by Aaron Nelis. The sophomore won four medals in the meet. The 800 meter relay team was sixth.

Discussing prospects

Lake County Vikings head coach Ron Bryza and assistant Sam Toi discuss the prospects of future Vikings at Park City mini-camp. Owner Rick Starostra said he was satisfied with the turnout at All-Stars Bar and Grill. First practice for semi-pro team will be June 6 at North Chicago Community High School.

Why should you choose an emergency room before you need one?

Because all emergency rooms are not alike!

The emergency room at Saint Therese Medical Center is proud to be the only Level II Trauma Center in North Lake County. Level II is a special designation awarded by the State of Illinois to emergency rooms that meet a long list of rigorous standards.

One requirement is top qualified professionals. That's why our emergency room is fully staffed with trauma nurse specialists and the most board-certified emergency room specialists in the county. Plus, trauma surgeons and other specialists are on call 24 hours a day.

So, if one of life's emergencies occurs—big or small—you can be assured that Saint Therese is bound by the State to provide the highest level of care in the area—24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

And, to round out our emergency services, the Saint Therese Area Trauma Satellite on Rt. 59 at Rt. 132 in Lake Villa is open from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m., seven days a week.

Confident Chambers set to meet new challenges

The statement could be a shock for every future Carmel baseball opponent.

"I know we would be decent but I did not expect that we would be undefeated. With each win, we gain more confidence," Carmel pitcher Shawn Chambers said.

Carmel's winning streak, at 23 games at the start of the week, has been the top baseball story of the spring with the cold weather perhaps running a close second. And Chambers, who started it all when he took to the mound against Waukegan East in March, has been a big part of Carmel's success. The senior is 8-0 with three shutouts and a no-hitter.

"Last year we were a young team as we had seven junior starting but won the regional for the first time in Carmel's history. This year we are building on last year," Chambers said.

Chambers said that experience has helped in the several contests in which Carmel has been tied or trailed.

An example of that came in a 2-1 win at Notre Dame. Playing under the lights of cable TV, the Corsairs spotted the Dona a 1-0 lead.

No problem. Eric Maloney stroked a bases-loaded single in the fifth inning.

Chambers, in addition to having a fastball which has registered in the 70s on radar guns, has a natural advantage in being left-handed.

"We don't play too many teams with left-handers so it's a plus for us," Chambers said.

A Vernon Hills resident, Chambers' best strength is his "ability to throw strikes," Chuck Gandolfi, Carmel's rookie mentor who has guided the team to the media spotlight, said.

As any good quarterback or running back compliments his linemen, Chambers is quick to distribute the praise to the defense behind him.

He also believes the Corsairs are just a strong hitting bunch.

"We don't have any weak spots in our lineup," he said.

Baseball and the Chambers family have been one since Shawn's days at Mundelein Community Park playing for little league teams.

"I can't imagine not playing baseball," he said.

He plans to play again this summer for the Libertyville legion squad which advanced to a tournament in Kansas City.

Several colleges have expressed interest in Chambers, including Georgia Tech and Illinois,

Fiocchi qualifies for national meet

College of Lake County's men's tennis team will be represented at the national junior college tennis tournament by someone who will be looking to make a lasting first impression.

Freshman Rich Fiocchi qualified for the national meet at Tyler, Texas May 21 by winning the title at number one singles at the Rock Valley sectional.

Fiocchi, whom Coach Lance Laverty has said is the "best player I have ever seen" gained revenge with a 6-1, 6-2 title match win over Rock Valley's Dean Russell.

Laverty said Fiocchi chances are improved because a format change breaks teams into two categories: those who offer scholarships and those who do not.

As a team, CLC finished the sectional with 15 points in third place. CLC just edged out Moraine Valley's 14 points. Host Rock Valley and DuPage tied for top honors with 23 points.

Fiocchi and doubles partner Steve Quigley of Great Lakes advanced to the finals of number one doubles but fell to Russell and Dave Parks of Rock Valley 6-3, 6-3.

The second doubles team of Jim Carson and Dennis Dressel were eliminated in the first round but the third doubles team of Greg Smith and Jeff Sassorossi advanced to the quarterfinals.

In singles, Quigley fell to Parks in a three-set match at number two. He won the first set 6-3 but lost the next two by that score.

CLC finished the season with a perfect 5-0 record in the Skyway Conference and the Lancers were 13-3 in all dual meets.

CLC planning workshops

College of Lake County is offering a coaching workshop on the 'Philosophy of Coaching' in June.

The workshop, part of the college's American Coaching Effectiveness

Program, will be held June 17 and 24 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the CLC Physical Education Center.

For more information, call the CLC Adult Continuing Education & Extension Services at (312) 223-3616.

WHAT IT TAKES TO BE THE BEST — BY ONE OF THE BEST.

Recently, the recipient of the Illinois Academy of Family Practice's 4th Annual Physician of the Year Award, Richard H. Dolan, M.D., has observed tremendous growth in his community. And at his hospital — Condell Memorial.

"People come to Condell because they know what to expect. A sophisticated, modern facility. The most advanced technology. A caring, knowledgeable staff. After all, those are the very attributes that make Condell one of the best.

"And patients appreciate the care they receive — the personal touch — and leave with a good feeling.

"Our emphasis is on wellness. The outpatient facilities and programs at Condell, such as the Centre Club, are making major contributions toward a healthier community.

"Coming to Condell is one of the best choices I ever made. And one of the best you can make."

You'll love our healthy attitude.

Area libraries receive grants

Eight area public libraries have been awarded state grants, according to State Sen. Adeline J. Geo-Karis (R-Zion).

The per capita grants are designed to improve and strengthen library service at the local level and to help in providing cooperative library services throughout the state. Sen. Geo-Karis said the grant money can be used for books, magazines, computer hardware and software, videotapes, compact discs, staff salaries, preservation of materials, shelving, supplies and general operations.

All of the eight libraries were chosen to receive the per capita grants. The amounts are: Antioch-$15,118; Fox Lake-$13,826; Gurnee-$26,808; Lake Villa-$18,115; North Chicago-$38,774; and Round Lake-$23,268.

The state also awards equalization aid grants to libraries when the assessed valuation of the local taxing district does not yield $4.25 per capita when taxing 13 cents per $100. The North Chicago Library is due an additional $63,061 under this grant program.

Single parents to meet May 12

All single parents are welcome to a general meeting of Parents Without Partners, (PWP) Lake County Chapter 247, on Friday, May 12 at the Cabriolet Restaurant, Rtes.

137 and 21 (Milwaukee Ave.), Libertyville. Newcomers orientation takes place at 8:30 p.m. The evening's program begins at 9 p.m. with Linda Hines,

Ph.D., speaking on "How to Make the Most Out of Your Life at Any Age." Dancing and socializing will follow. For further information call (312)546-6918. An Amigo meeting for prospective members will be held at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, May 16 in Round Lake Beach. PWP offers social and educational activities for single parents and their children, custody is not a factor for membership.

Woodland Board OK's Central office move plan

Plans are all set to move Woodland Dist. 50's central offices to temporary facilities to be located in front of Woodland Elementary School. The Woodland Board of Education approved the following costs for the move: moving to school grounds, $7,000; concrete work for base, $4,000 and plumbing, water and sewer, $7,050. "We hope to move in by July 1," Woodland Supt.

Dr. Marlin Meyer said. The trailers will give the district an additional two classrooms. They are being purchased from Waukegan Tire.

In other financial matters, the board approved issuing Tax Anticipation Warrants for $940,000 at a 7.23 percent interest rate from Gurnee National Bank. Meyer said the TAWs will get the district through the end of the school year and will be paid back when the first installment of tax monies come in June.

The board also approved changing the telephone system to establish Centrex lines.

The board approved the purchase of 250 new desks from Virco, Inc. for the elementary school. The total cost is $8,462.50.

The purchase of three temporary classrooms was approved.

Meyer told the board the district has received its new equalized assessed valuation for 1988 and tax extensions. The EAV increased 19.02 percent from 1987 to 1988. The district was anticipating a 13.3 percent increase.

In other business, Board member Jack Dobson submitted his resignation. The Gurnee resident is moving out of the district. The district will be considering candidates for a 30 day period. Interested district residents should send a letter of interest to the Woodland Dist. 50 offices.

Meyer gave the board a report on state aid projections. These range from $966,359 with no increase to $1,217,739 with an increase of $200 million for fiscal year 1990.

In other business, the board accepted the resignation of board member Jack Dobson.

Q. Is it true some contact lenses can be worn for 30 days without removing them?

A. Extended-wear contact lenses have been approved by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration for up to 30 days of continuous wear but, in actual practice, wearing time between removals for cleaning generally varies from a few days to a week.

Wearing problems can develop with dirty lenses. Don't be discouraged from trying extended-wear lenses, however.

With professional monitoring by an optometrist using a special microscope, many people have good success with them. The key is to start with a thorough eye examination by an optometrist skilled in prescribing extended-wear lenses and to return for recommended follow-up care.

That may mean visits to your optometrist three or four times a year. Such frequency is necessary to avoid wearing problems. At the same time, your eye health and vision can be monitored.
